Letter to promote executive/chair positions

Hey there, amazing York student!

We are Exploring Feminism Together at York (EFTY), a learning community of students and alumni engaging with history, theory and action. We're passionate about feminist dialogue, collective learning and action-based change.

We host conversations on feminist theory, history, and intersectional activism. We also learn together through workshops, shared interest and collaboration. We are a club affiliated with the Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies department. However, this club is open to everyone at York!

Examples of events we have had in the past:

- Marched proudly in the International Women's Day march in 2024, and will do so again in 2026!
- Invited Friba Rezayee, Executive Director of Women Leaders of Tomorrow, to speak about barriers to education for women in Afghanistan
- Had an awesome comic book workshop with Professor Allyson Mitchell
- Invited Professor Curt Pullan to lead a harm-reduction workshop
- And many more amazing things!
