Abstract: Please use Times New Roman 12pt. A single paragraph of about 200 words maximum. The abstract should include research motivation, methods, main findings, and conclusion. The research motivation should highlight the problem to be addressed within the context of the relevant field and emphasize the research objective. The research method should briefly introduce the research approach used. The key findings should summarize the main discoveries, and the conclusion should summarize the most significant results and contributions, noting any reservations or limitations.

Keywords: keyword1, keyword2, keyword3 (List 3 to 10 keywords).

1. Introduction (Times New Roman in bold, 12pt)

The main text uses Times New Roman 12pt. The article should be no longer than 6 pages. The introduction section should (1) brief the scope and objective of the paper and state the problem, (2) briefly review the pertinent literature, (3) brief the methods, and (4) provide an overview of the main results of the work. References should be numbered in order of appearance and indicated by a numeral or numerals in square brackets, e.g., [1] or [2,3], or [4–6]. See the end of the document for further details on references.

2. Materials and Methods

The methodology must be briefly stated and described or with sufficient references. It should be furthermore highlighted why the research problem is relevant to theory and practice, and why the chosen method(s) are suited for the problem. Equations shall be written in centered numbered, as shown in Eq. (1).

3. Results and Discussion

This section presents the output of the experiments, model, or computation. Give emphasis in the text the most important aspects of the tables, graphs, or figures. All figures and tables should be cited in the main text as Figure 1, Table 1, etc.

Table 1. Table caption uses Times New Roman 10pt. Tables should be placed in the main text near to the first time they are cited.

Title 1	Title 2	Title 3
Entry 1	data	Data
Entry 2	data	Data

4. Conclusions

This section draws together the most important results and their consequences. Do not simply repeat the abstract as the conclusion.
