

deVere Group: Leading the Way in Independent Financial Services

The deVere Group of companies is recognized globally as one of the foremost independent financial institutions, offering a unique blend of personalized financial advice and cutting-edge digital solutions to clients around the world. Founded in 2002, deVere has grown exponentially, now encompassing over 50 different legal entities worldwide, and providing a wide array of financial services including retirement planning, fixed-income investments, ESG investing, digital asset investing, and much more.

Nigel Green - CEO and Founder

At the helm of deVere Group is Nigel Green, a seasoned professional with over four decades of top-level international experience in the financial services industry. Nigel's leadership is characterized by a hands-on approach, where helping, encouraging, and supporting the people within the organization is paramount. This management style has resulted in a cohesive group of companies driven not by bureaucratic memos but by individuals who benefit from regular personal contact with the leadership.

Nigel is known for his openness to criticism and willingness to tackle tough issues head-on, which has been instrumental in navigating the complexities of multi-jurisdictional legislation and regulation. Under his guidance, deVere Group has built a reputation for excellence and reliability, serving over 100,000 clients worldwide and continuing to grow.

Setting the Standard in Financial Services

deVere Group is committed to setting the industry standard that others follow. The leadership team leads by example, fostering an organization where clients and stakeholders are eager to build long-term, successful relationships based on trust and rapport.

The deVere Group's disciplined approach, driven by an experienced Board, highly skilled management, and effective governance practices, ensures that their people bring a higher standard to everything they do. This commitment to excellence is reflected in the numerous positive deVere group reviews from satisfied clients who have benefitted from their services.
