

DumbWeasel Terms of Service

TOS is non negotiable and any commissioner/buyer is expected to read and understand all terms. Ignorance of TOS does not exclude you from agreeing and abiding to the TOS as it is publicly available.

Payment

Payment for all artwork is required to be upfront and full. I have the option of Venmo, Paypal, Zelle or Cash App. I do not accept gift cards, cash or other compensation or payment plans. All transactions are to be conducted in USD currency, and conversion can be done using the payment methods above.

Refunds

If you are unsatisfied with your art, I will provide compensation in the form of extra art or reduce the price of the next commission. Unfortunately no refunds or exchanges can be made at this time. Refunds will NOT be given to individuals who break my TOS in any manner.

Off Limits

Explicit NSFW. Softcore/non-explicit porn is still 18 plus but permitted. This includes things like null art and fetish gear with no genitals showing. NSFW ABDL artwork is strictly prohibited.

Trades

Please contact me for more information about trades!

Artistic Credit

Artistic credit is required when posting your commission publicly. Please do not take credit for my artwork. Buyer is allowed to get your art printed on clothing, items and paper.

Professional Courtesy

Please follow the golden rule and treat others the way you wish to be treated. In the event of extreme circumstances, DumbWeasel reserves the right to cancel or suspend any commission at their discretion without providing a full refund if work has already started. Additionally, excessive edit requests may be denied after a reasonable amount has already been provided. Breaking TOS by conducting yourself in a rude and unprofessional way will result in automatic suspension of your commission without a refund.

Additional Questions

If you have any questions, don't be shy to ask. No question is dumb, and even if the information is in here, I will still provide the correct answer to any question! Anyone is always welcome to reach out for commission status and current lead-times. Please see the Contact Me section on My Website! <3
