Read the passage on pg. 64 that comes from a letter Chris wrote to his sister Carine.

This passage shows a darker side of Chris. Explain how this passage illustrates cruelty, vindictiveness, and/or maliciousness on Chris's part. Reference specific lines from the passage to support your point.

Chapter 7 indicates a number of dichotomies in Chris's personality. He distances himself from people, yet he also captivates people and draws them to him. Explain how this is so referencing at least one specific line from the text that establishes each point.

Reread the final note that Chris wrote to Jan Burres and Bob on page 69. How does this note seem to contradict the promise he makes to Westerberg on page 66?
