

Mr. Robin Sweeney

Managing Director Jamaica Social Investment Fund

Omar Sweeney is an astute Engineering Professional with a wealth of experience over three decades in the areas of Civil/Construction Engineering and Project Management, working for global entities locally and international markets.

He has been appointed by the Prime Minister of Jamaica, to the Professional Engineers Registration Board (PERB) where he served as the Board Chairman. He is also an active Member of the Jamaica Institution of Engineers (JIE), having previously served as President.

As Managing Director at the Jamaica Social Investment Fund (JSIF), a lead project management arm for the Government of Jamaica. He has portfolio responsibility for the execution of several impactful social intervention and infrastructure projects within underserved and vulnerable communities across Jamaica.

These Projects are funded by the Government of Jamaica, the World Bank, the European Union and the Caribbean Development Bank amongst others.

Prior to his appointment at JSIF, Mr. Sweeney has served in senior leadership roles at the Jamaica Public Service (JPS) and the Planning Institute of Jamaica (PIOJ).

Mr. Sweeney also serves as the Deputy Chairman to the Prime Minister of Jamaica for the Zones Of Special Operations (also referred to as ZOSO) in Jamaica there he has spearheaded several successful social intervention and infrastructure initiatives.

He is the holder of a diploma in social sciences, a Bachelors of Science Degree in Civil Engineering and a Master of Engineering Degree from the University of Florida. He has also successfully completed post graduate executive training programmes at the London School of Economics and the University of Oxford.

Mr. Sweeney has been appointed by the Government of Jamaica, to the Order of Distinction, in the rank of Commander, (CD), for his contribution to the Public Service, and the nation. building.