COVID-19 IMPACT ON THE SOUTHERN FRIED PHILOSOPHY PODCAST

We here at the Southern Fried Philosophy Podcast take great concern for your safety and experience with our show. We feel that it is our responsibility to provide you a quality show with no impact to your safety during these times with the impact from COVID-19, also known as the Corona Virus.

We have reached out to top medical doctors (on WebMD) and have not received a call back to confirm that listening to our show could spread the disease. However, from hours of research we (again, looking on WebMD) we feel certain that it is not transmissible via audio format. In fact listening to, sharing episodes, and writinto of infection (NOT SCIENTIFICALLY PROVEN)

We have also decided to take preliminary steps to avoid anyone on the show getting and spreading the virus.

1. Mojo has to stay at least 3 feet away from everyone.
2. We will not be sharing a fork while we do food reviews.
3. We have sanitized the studio with 100 proof corn whiskey.
4. We will not eat bat soup or lick any monkey's rear ends.

Again, your safety is our utmost concern, please feel free to continue to listen to the show knowing you are safe.
