

Module 2 DBA Study Guide

Be prepared to discuss the terms and concepts below.

Important! For your DBA, you will be discussing the concepts for modules that you have completed. However, Please keep this Study Guide as a resource for the Segment 1 Exam.

You may have these and any of your notes during the DBA! Make a copy of this document so you can type on it!

DBAs take place over the phone.

Key Terms (Some of these will be discussed during the DBA!)

2.01	2.02
Purpose of informational text (PIE) Bias Choosing credible sources Suffix/domain	Types of informational text: Cause/Effect Chronological Compare/Contrast Definition Problem/Solution

2.03	2.05
Plagiarism Works Cited Internal (in-text) Citations Signal Words Parenthetical Citations	Introduction Paragraph HAT (Hook, Attack Topic, Thesis) Attack Topic= Bridge

2.06	2.07
Elaboration	Compound sentence Complex sentence Appositive Gerund

2.08	2.09
Conclusion Paragraph TISC (Thesis, Impression/Synthesis/Clincher)	Formal vs. informal writing Coherence, style, syntax revision Transition words and phrases Sentence variety Works Cited

2.10 Adv
Interaction between character development, setting, and plot Narratives with folklore

Additional Important Information	The Four C's
	Connections: Make a connection between your life and what you've learned in this module. Challenges: What challenges or questions do you still have about content from this Module? Concepts: What have you learned from this Module that you feel is most important? Changes: How has content from this Module changed your attitude, actions, or thinking?

Additional Notes