

Group 1: Common Biblical allusions 1

Cain & Abel

Samson & Delilah

David & Goliath; David & Bathsheba

Job

Jezebel

Ishmael

Moses (birth to the promised land)

Group 2: Common Biblical allusions 2

parable of the Prodigal Son

Sodom & Gomorrah

birth of Jesus (symbol of the lamb)

Last Supper & Judas

Crucifixion and Resurrection

Doubting Thomas

Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

Group 3: Greek and Roman

The Trojan Horse

Helen of Troy

Adonis

Pandora

Midas

Phoenix

Apollo

Aphrodite/Venus

Group 4: King Arthur (you may want to decide how to separate into pieces, but should work together)

Arthur & the Knights of the Round Table

Guinevere

Lancelot

Camelot

Merlin

Places: Avalon and Camelot

Objects: Excalibur, the Sword in the Stone, the Holy Grail

Group 5: Fairy Tales and Literature

Cinderella

The Ugly Duckling

The Pied Piper

Machiavelli/ The Prince (include what the word Machiavellian means)

Shakespeare's Caesar, Cassius, Brutus, Antony (ides of March, dogs of war, et tu Brute) This is an extra long one

Group 6: Catch-all

Bleak House

Lolita

Narcissus

Cupid and Psyche

Pygmalion and Galatea

Orpheus and Eurydice

Daedalus (and Icarus)