

Photos from Northgate Peaks Trail in Kolob Terrace on Wednesday, June 19

The day was gorgeous, the views were wonderful, and everyone had lots of fun. Lots of flowers in bloom. Amazing views. In addition to the Northgate Peaks Trail, we also visited an overlook over Kolob Creek and looked for condors (they are supposed to nest there, but we didn't see them). Also enjoyed great views from Lava Point and visited Kolob Reservoir at 8,117 feet on top of Kolob Terrace. Saw a bald eagle and its nest at Kolob Reservoir.
