

Sleeping statue

I woke up, I noticed it's not morning so i checked my watch and saw that it's twelve A.M. I say "I'm thirsty." so get up and try to get water but I can't move. "Maybe I'm just sleepy, I'll just."

but I still can't move, I start to get worried because i have tried to move but no matter what i still can't Move. I try to cry for help but guess what, I can't move or talk. But then I see a big, mysterious, shadowy figure get closer but I can't do anything but watch and pray.
