

Dragorii

Dragorii are kinda big/ massive (they don't have to be chubby) reptile/ dragon-like beings

- long neck
- 4 fingers
- massive tail
- they are warm-blooded but lays eggs.
- omnivorous (but it can depending on the species variety)
- covered with small scales but they are emmm... like skin, soft and elastic.
- horned head

There is a few types of Dragorii:

Common - looks like much other "lizards". The same "body base", no special traits.

Uncommon - uncommon color variants/ horns, etc.

Rare - with special traits and skills/ anatomy.
