

The current proposal for the Alumni event includes hosting a Beer Garden (Fatty's), along with the option to set up a tent or table where the Alumni Association can showcase the architectural drawings of the new Center for Greek Life building.