Field Day - T&Cs

The following entrance and ticket purchase terms and conditions apply to Field Day, as part of the Brockwell Live event series.

Terms & Conditions

1. Waxarch Limited (“we”) are the promoters and organisers of Field Day (the “event” or “Festival”), which is part of the Brockwell Live event series.
2. The following terms and conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) are in place to ensure the safety and security of everyone at the Brockwell Live event series.
3. By purchasing a ticket or accepting a guest ticket for the event from any outlet and entering the event as a ticket holder or guest you are accepting and agreeing to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.
4. We reserve the right to vary these Terms and Conditions from time to time. Any updates will be reflected on the event website (www.fielddayfestivals.com).
5. Entry to the Site on non-ticketed days is free. You must produce a valid Ticket to gain entry to the Event on any day when a music concert is taking place.

Age Policy

1. Age restrictions apply at this event and it is the ticketholder’s responsibility to check the applicable age limit to the event before purchasing tickets (and any breach of these restrictions may result in the ticketholder being refused entry or removed from the site).
2. Specifically, this is an over 18’s event and ticketholders must provide valid ID upon entering the Festival. No-one under the age of 18 will be allowed on site. Babies are not permitted at the event.
3. Proof of age in the form of recognised photographic ID may be required on entry and in order to purchase alcohol. A challenge 25 policy will be in operation at the bars.

Ticket Purchase

1. Only tickets bought from authorised agents will be valid for entry. Tickets are non-exchangeable, non-refundable and non-transferable. Re-sale or attempted re-sale is prohibited. Where there has been a breach of this condition (or breach of any other

Terms and Conditions, we reserve the right to cancel the applicable tickets and refuse entry to the event without refund or compensation.

2. Eight tickets maximum per transaction.
3. Tickets, wristbands or other forms of accreditation to the event remain the property of the event for security purposes, and may be recalled at any time.
4. Ticket holder names must be provided at point of purchase. No name changes will be made after purchase and you may need to purchase another ticket if necessary.
5. Tickets may not be used as part of a promotion, competition, advertising, or be given away as part of a product or service package or for commercial gain.
6. We are not liable for any tickets that have been lost or stolen.
7. Where multiple tickets have been bought in one transaction, all members of the party must arrive at the same time.
8. Those collecting tickets by box office collection should bring the card with which they have made their booking and their confirmation code, personal ID is also advisable. Where the person collecting is not the card holder a signed letter of authorization from the card holder is required along with the confirmation code of the booking and personal ID for those collecting. This signed letter of authorization should describe the individual who will be collecting the tickets and should contain the last 4 digits of the card used to make the booking.
9. As a multi-act event, refunds will not be offered if there are programming changes or artist cancellations.
10. If we cancel the event, the relevant ticketing platform through which you bought your tickets will try to inform you and in the event of cancellation you will normally be offered a refund of the face value of the ticket(s).
11. Please refer to the T&Cs contained on the official website of the ticket platform through which you purchased your tickets for the event. In the event of disparity between the T&Cs of the applicable ticketing platform and these Terms and Conditions, these Terms and Conditions will apply.

Entrance Policy

1. There is no re-admittance to the event once you have left – please make sure that you have everything you need to enjoy your day.
2. The organisers reserve the right of refusal of admission for any reason.

3. All ticket holders and guests must consent to a security search of persons, clothing, bags and any other items deemed necessary, as a condition of entry. Prohibited items (including those outlined in these terms & conditions as well as on the event websites) will be confiscated and disposed of. No facilities exist to store prohibited items at the event entrance.
4. The organisers retain the right to conduct further searches during the event should they have a reasonable suspicion that any of these conditions have been breached.
5. Ticketholders and guests will not conduct activities related to marketing or advertising (including ambush marketing) or trading or other commercial activity without prior consent. In the case of infringement, the action may be invoiced on the basis of a comparable sponsorship contract.
6. Various items are prohibited at the Brockwell Live event series to keep the event safe and to allow us to comply with the licensing objectives. A full list of prohibited items is available at the Brockwell Live event series website as well as below.

Prohibited Items

- The following items are prohibited at the event, and we reserve the right to prohibit any other item if in the reasonable opinion of the organisers it could constitute a risk to safety or security:
 - Food and Drink – You may not bring any food or drink (including alcohol) to the event with the exception of baby food (where not in glass containers). Empty re-useable water bottles are permitted. Water points are available on site
