

ABRA Amateur Show Lease Application

PO Box 33098 | Tulsa, OK 74135

(918) 936-4707

The ABRA office must receive Exhibition Lease Applications at least 30 days before showing.

ABRA will reduce the 30-day waiting period to 15 days when accompanied by a rush fee, providing the lessee can show proof the equine is currently under lease with an ABRA-recognized breed association.

Lessee MUST present their Lease Acknowledgement to the show office with an entry form.

An amateur may exhibit an ABRA-registered horse in amateur classes leased in the amateur's name. The amateur lease application form must be accompanied by:

- ☐ Lease fee payment
- ☐ Copy of both sides of the ABRA horse registration papers
- ☐ A signed authorization letter from the last recorded owner
- ☐ Copy of the Owner's ABRA membership card
- ☐ Copy of the Lessee's ABRA membership card

The lease will expire December 31 of the applicable show year.

An official ABRA embossed Amateur Exhibition Lease acknowledgment will be sent to the named youth. This acknowledgment should be presented to show management with the following:

1. Copy of the horse's registration papers
2. Copy of the last recorded owner's current ABRA membership card
3. Current ABRA amateur membership card whenever making entries in ABRA amateur classes
4. The horse's owner must be listed on the show entry form as the last recorded owner on the registration papers

Only one (1) exhibition lease per horse will be recognized. An exhibition lease does not grant a lessee or lessee's agent authorization to sign the breeder's certificate(s), stallion breeding reports, transfers, or registration applications for the horse. The lessee must be responsible for expenses associated with the horse's care: boarding, feeding, routine farrier services, and routine veterinary services.

During the term of the exhibition lease, only the lessee and lessee's immediate family (spouse, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter) may show the horse.

The lessee's trainer may also show the horse during the term, but only in open division events. The recorded owner may also show the horse during the lease term, but only in classes other than those where the amateur lessee is exhibiting the horse

BOTH PARTIES MUST BE ABRA MEMBERS.
