Who am I writing to?

- Men

Where are they right now

- Scrolling on social media, and dating apps to find women.

Where do I want to take them?

I want them from start to end to direct them to click the link

What are the steps I need to take to take them whenever I want

- I need to talk about their pains and desires and amplify them, and also create a movie in their head by using kinesthetic language and sensory language to make them take action.

What are their pains/desires?

They desire to have a woman to spend the rest of their lives with, to feel the emotion of love, they want to prove haters wrong who said they won't get a woman in their life.

Their pains: they are struggling to get a woman, they are bad at dating, they don't know what to talk about with women, they are nervous every time they are speaking with women.

Subject: I am afraid that I'll Never Wake Up Next to a Woman

Seeing other guys with their girlfriends makes you feel jealous.

You tried talking to a girl, but she turned you down, leaving you feeling down.

During conversations with women, you start to stress out, like someone poured a bucket of water on you that won't stop dripping.

You're getting anxious because you're getting older, and you still haven't been able to find a girlfriend.

I want you to think about this...

Imagine waking up next to the woman you love in the same bed.

Shared kisses, whispered words, and morning cuddles.

The warmth and love that accompany you every day.

Your friends begin to respect and envy you more when they see you with your woman.

Here's the kicker...

Can you handle the feeling of envy when you see other men walking hand in hand with their girlfriends?

If you're afraid of facing rejection again and are willing to do whatever it takes to become the STRONGEST man in dating.
