8.1 Pony Sanctuary: Cllr Beyts had spoken to DNP regarding the progress of the planning application. Planning requirements had been ignored, however the owner was asking for a certificate of lawfulness for works already completed. It was reported that objections to the application had clearly caused concern to the owner, which had been reflected in some unwarranted behaviour. 8.2 Wayfarer: Permission for an extension to the property has been applied for. The notice has been forwarded to the neighbouring properties. The council has no objections but noted that it was a rather large development. ITEM 9 – Highways. 9.1 Following the resignation from the council of Mike Eveleigh, Cllr Mount agreed to take the matter forward and will contact Mike Eveleigh on the procedures needed, with reference to snow wardens and whether the highways authority would be filling the salt bins.
