

Factual TV Checklist

These are the tasks that have been set for this project. Please use the checklist to ensure you have completed all the work.

Task, summary and & Link	Have you published the work on the blog?	Have you completed your own self reflection on what you have learnt?	Have you completed the work the best of your ability?
Factual TV and genre Explore the conventions used and genre characteristics in three factual tv shows of your own choice.
Representations and equalities Issues Complete your own research and analysis of the representations and equalities issues raised in three different factual TV shows from the same or similar genres.
Practice Task A Shooting steady shots on your phone, recording test interview set ups and uploading and exporting video clips.
Practice Task B - field report Shoot, edit and upload the news report in college following the script provided.
PracticeTask C - How to make a cup of tea Shoot and edit a 1minute factual TV except on 'how to make a cup of tea'.
Careers in factual TV Set up a careers blog and complete some research in to an entre level, progression and career aim job using the course careers resources .
Planning for factual TV show Complete and upload your planning documentation including as a minimum a script and a call sheet. Stronger work will include evidence of research into other shows as well as props and costumes, location recess, shot lists and other evidence.
Rough cut
Midway review
Final edit
Final review			