Summer Program Information 2025

Updated dates and other information is highlighted in yellow.

VOLUNTEER OPTIONS:

Argonne Elementary School - SFUSD - CLOSED FOR REPAIRS IN 2025
Contact:	None - Raleigh will organize this placement
Location:	Richmond District - SF
Website:	https://www.argonnesf.org/
Date:	July 1 to July 26
Time:	8:30-3:00
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This is the only year-round school in SF.• Summer marks the beginning of the regular school year.• There is a strong teaching staff and principal.• Middle school volunteers (typically former students) work as aides in classrooms.• This is a strong program where many of our BATTI teachers work each year.

Community Learning Center
Contact:	Mary Ann Cordova - Youth Literacy Services Coordinator MaryAnn.Cordova@ssf.net
Location:	South San Francisco
Website:	https://www.ssf.net/departments/library/services/literacy-services/clc

Date:	June 3-4 Training Days * June 5 to June 28 *In the past CLL met once a week with BATTI residents the month of May to help with planning lessons and activities for the summer if they wish to do that kind of training.
Time:	8:30 to 1:00
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The program is comprised mostly of Hispanic and Asian students. • BATTI volunteers work as a lead teacher without pay. • There are strong college-age assistants who know these children well from after-school and have good classroom management skills. They are helpful academic aides for the students. • There are about 18-20 students per class. • The program is well run; a great BATTI grad was the director for many years. She serves as your mentor. • The program is run at a community center, not a school, but the "classrooms" are more than adequate.
