

Your At-Home A.P. Literature Schedule (If Needed)

Hello! Since we don't know if/when/how long we'll be quarantined, I thought I'd offer you a calendar to help keep you on track for each week that we will possibly be quarantined. Again, I have no idea which weeks we will actually be gone from school and need to use this calendar. I have no inside information of any kind. I just work here. If we resume school during any of the weeks below, we'll just go back to normal instruction.

Note: You are NOT expected to meet with your book clubs (not in person nor online). When you return to school, you will pick up where you left off. If you have access to Quizlet, keep reviewing Academic Vocabulary, Sets 1-7 and lit terms.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
March 16  Complete the first poetry timed writing.	March 17  Serial reading or book club reading.	March 18  Serial reading or book club reading.	March 19  Complete the poetry multiple choice.	March 20  Serial reading or book club reading.
March 30  Complete the first prose timed writing.	March 31  Serial reading or book club reading.	April 1  Serial reading or book club reading.	April 2  Complete the prose multiple choice.	April 3  Serial reading or book club reading.
April 6  Complete the second poetry timed writing.	April 7  Serial reading or book club reading.	April 8  Serial reading or book club reading.	April 9  Complete the second prose timed writing.	April 9  Serial reading or book club reading.

Your At-Home American Literature Schedule (If Needed)

Hello! Since we don't know if/when/how long we'll be quarantined, I thought I'd offer you a calendar to help keep you on track for each week that we will possibly be quarantined. Again, I have no idea which weeks we will actually be gone from school and need to use this calendar. I have no inside information of any kind. I just work here. If we resume school during any of the weeks below, we'll just go back to normal instruction. Essentially, you'll be reading and journaling on The Great Gatsby.

NOTE: You are NOT expected to hold any online discussions of The Great Gatsby. Also, if you cannot access the film version, just skip that (but if you can access it, it's totally worth it). Please be prepared to submit your Gatsby reading journals when you return.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
March 16  Read Chapter 3 in The Great Gatsby .	March 17  Complete your Chapter 3 journal entry.  If possible, watch the film version of Ch.3.	March 18  Read Chapter 4 in The Great Gatsby .	March 19  Complete your Chapter 4 journal entry.  If possible, watch the film version of Ch.4.	March 20  Complete Grammar You Must Know #9 in your pink packet.
March 30  Read Chapter 5 in The Great Gatsby .	March 31  Complete your Chapter 5 journal entry.  If possible, watch the film version of Ch.5.	April 1  Read Chapter 6 in The Great Gatsby .	April 2  Complete your Chapter 6 journal entry.  If possible, watch the film version of Ch.6.	April 3  Complete Grammar You Must Know #10 in your pink packet.
April 6  Start reading Chapter 7 in The Great Gatsby .	April 7  Keep reading Chapter 7 in The Great Gatsby .	April 8  Keep reading Chapter 7 in The Great Gatsby .	April 9  Complete your Chapter 7 journal entry.  If possible, watch the film version of Ch.7.	April 9  Make sure your journal entries are all caught up.

