Call for Proposals

CAPEA Fall 2024 Conference
Theme: Engaging new visions for the future of education and educational leadership

In the midst of the continuing attacks on our educational institutions, it is of utmost urgency that we, as educational leaders, remain focused on developing structures and systems of support that address the many inequities that impact our diverse school communities.

The CAPEA Fall 2024 Conference will provide members with an opportunity to engage in critical dialogue and reflection on the issues manifesting themselves in our educational environment. We invite proposals that address the inherent challenges facing us as educational leaders, and the obstacles we face in creating and developing inclusive educational structures.

The CAPEA Fall 2024 Conference invites proposals that consider the following themes in K-12 and Higher Education:

- Educational Leadership and Technology
- The Preparation of Educational Leaders
- Leadership for Justice, Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Social Justice
- Education Advocacy and Policy

Sessions should demonstrate:

- Relevance of the proposal to educational leadership
- Alignment of the proposal to the Conference theme
- Reference to scholarly literature
- Sound methodology
- Quality writing
- Audience appeal

Submission: Proposals should be submitted online here.*
Please note all presenters will be required to register for the convening and be a member of CAPEA.

IMPORTANT DATES:

- Proposal Submission: September 13, 2024
- Notification of Proposal Acceptance/Rejection: September 30, 2024
- Conference Dates: October 24-26, 2024

CAPEA is an organization of professors from private and public colleges and universities and leaders from the PK-20 school systems, dedicated to further developing and informing social justice-centered educational leaders. We seek to vitalize the discourse necessary for blending theory and practice in ways consistent with current research and impending projections while also strengthening networks with other professional and public entities for the continued improvement of education in California.
