SEATTLE UNITED PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

I understand that, as the parent of a Seattle United player, I am required to follow our Club's Parent Code of Conduct, and that violation of these rules may subject me and/or my son/daughter ("my Player") to discipline by my Player's Coach and/or the Club. The code of conduct is fundamental to upholding our club's core values and developing our culture of respect and inclusion that has defined us over the years.

Our Core Values & Beliefs - Our players, families and coaches aspire to:

- Demonstrate integrity, respect, antiracism, inclusivity of all races, genders, identities, sexual orientations, and religions, equity and sportsmanship in all we do.
 - Instill a lifelong love of the game.
 - Build a strong sense of community among all our stakeholders.
 - Take a "whole life," player centric perspective in all our decisions.
- Develop all players, regardless of skill level, to their full soccer potential.

When I am attending any Club event, I promise to:

- 1) Treat ALL players, coaches, referees, and spectators with respect. Specifically, actions that promote antiracism, diversity, equity, inclusion, and good sportsmanship.
- 2) Follow ALL rules established by my Player's coach and/or the Club.
- 3) Refrain from coaching ANY player, including MY Player.
- 4) Refrain from criticizing or abusing ANY referee or other game official.
- 5) Refrain from criticizing or abusing ANY player, coach, or spectator from MY team and/or opposing team.
- 6) Act at all times in a manner that reflects positively on me, my Player, my Player's team, and the Seattle United community.
