Subject: Your boss has been lying to you...

There is no such thing as a SAFE job. And your boss doesn't want you to know that.

You are expendable at your job. And you can't control that.

You have been trapped in this rat race since the day you were born.

Learning how to follow instructions throughout school and college.

Just to be one more worker.

And it is not your fault; all self-made successful people started the same way.

But there is a way out.

Subject: How to escape from your 9-5 (And not starve trying to)

What exactly keeps you up at night?

Is it the idea that you might be trapped in your 9-5 until you retire?

Is the false sense of financial stability that your job provides you?

Can you really sleep with those thoughts?

Pretty sure you can't

But don't worry

We all have been there,

But just a few have managed to escape from there

Subject: And after that, I was fired...

It is funny how the false sense of security fools us all

Nobody realizes that until it is too late,

I have been working at that firm for 10 years

My loyalty was never questioned

I worked my ass off every day,

Doing more things than most people

Being the best employee of the month for 6 consecutive months

I thought my career was outstanding and sooner I would be a senior director,

But that was all BS.

It was like any other day

I took a coffee and head down to work.

Did some daily tasks as usual,

And then my boss came up to my office

He talked to me about some BS the company was doing,

And that I was not a good fit for the company anymore

Then he just fired me.

After all my work, all the effort

GONE,

Just like that,

And I thought I had a “safe” job.

At that moment, I had two options

Go look for another job where the whole thing is likely to happen again,

Or

Break free from that cycle and start my own business

I chose number two,

But I didn't know where or how to start.

So I did some research and found Jason.

He showed me the path to success.

All of that happened two years ago, and now I can say Im financially free and have the time to do the stuff I want,

Being with my family when they need me.

I am ACTUALLY free,

And I have Jason to thank for that.

Discover the path to success Jason showed me to be financially free.
