

Listed below will be the general rules to keep in mind when taking a commission. All of the rules MUST be followed during the commission process. Any and all rules can be subject to change in the future.

- Commissions will be taken on a first come, first serve basis: no exceptions.
- HAVE YOUR MONEY AND METHOD OF TRANSACTION READY.
- Only one slot can be claimed per person.
- Let me know if you would like to be tagged whenever your commission is uploaded publicly, or if you would like to remain anonymous.
- Reservations will only be allowed if there are more than 5 available slots, and will be limited up to two only. You must notify me ahead of time once open slots are announced.
- Please provide proper references for the characters you want drawn. Acceptable references can be:
  - A bulleted list of all necessary character details
  - Multiple visual references of the character (e.g screenshots, character sheets, etc)
  - Picrew-style images of characters
- Make sure to clearly describe any details that will be included in the commission, such as the pose, expression, etc. While completely optional, it will be extremely useful to quickly provide a drawn visual of what you want the commission to look like.
- Commissions will be worked on in the order they were taken in; first slot worked on first, last slot worked on last.
- Please have patience as I try to deliver commissions in an acceptable time frame. Personal life and other external factors could slow things down, but you will most likely be notified in case something happens.
- Commissioned art can be used for personal reasons, such as profile pictures or otherwise, so long as credit is given.
- Please be civil while trying to secure a slot; there isn't always a guarantee you will be picked for a commission, as slots may fill up fast. No infighting or harassment shall be allowed or tolerated.
- Provide a proper email address where I can send high-resolution updates/final version of the commissioned drawing