August 11, 2023

This is in response to the claim against my bond. I did the work approx. 3 years ago. I was brought into the job by a contractor (John Chatters) whom I have worked with in the past.

I disagree with everything Mr. Canary states.

1. Fascia - concealed dry rot & pest damage, We prepped, primed & painted the fascia, I am not aware of any dry rot.
2. Exterior siding painted with interior paint, Blatantly false-
3. Exterior siding beyond useful life. There was nothing wrong with siding, no rot no termite damage.
4. Concealed rodent urine in drywall ceiling. We sealed some water stains in ceiling with oil base stain sealer. Its possible some bled through, its also possible they are new stains coming through in the years since we painted it. I am a painter not a pest control specialist, it is not my job to go through the attic checking for rodents.

Woodbury is one who like to play word games -

1) Fascia - concealed dry rot and pest damage -- "I am not aware of any dry rot." (what about pest damage?)

3) Exterior Siding Beyond Useful Life - "There was nothing wrong with the siding. No rot. No termite damage" -- it was twisted and contorted from sun and had to be nailed and screwed in place for temporary cosmetic fix. etc...

5. Garage paint job concealed water damage.
There were stains in garage walls that were sealed with oil base primer.
6. Overspray roof and cedar closets.
I was not aware of any overspray on shingles.
7. Work quoted but not done - Pool house.
Yes, I gave a ~~quote~~ bid for pool house.
I never heard a response and did no work on pool house and received no payment for it.

I have been in business since 2004 and have never had a complaint against my license or bond until Mr. Canary

There was a second floor deck that was removed before ext. painting and replaced when all painting was completed.

I retired in May of this year, I will be 70 yrs. old in November. I stand behind all work performed at his house. Mr. Canary is going after everyone associated with this

Woodbury is one who likes to try to invert events for indirect suggestion --

Woodbury stated, "There was a second floor deck that was removed before ext painting and replaced when all painting was completed" - an attempt to invert timing of events to suggest no work was done from deck to conceal damage. We have a photo showing he did all that work before deck was removed.

property, from inspectors down to the house
cleaners, 3,

I was notified by the Contractor State
License Board they are dropping his complaint against my License.

Sincerely David Woodbury

The complaint was dropped by the CSLB because they claim they are only required to investigate if there was a contract between parties. They claim they do not investigate if there was no contract, in violation of the first sentence of the first paragraph of the Contractors Act.

The CSLB appears to have been looking the other way under the Director there who has been in place since the early 1990s. They were engineered to look away from real estate fix up and disclosure fraud schemes the same time everyone else was.

Clarification of Complaint Process

8/22/2023

California Contractors State Licensing Board
Mediation and Investigations Intake Supervisor

RE: Complaint Process Initiation Problems
Painter - David Woodbury - 2023-264
GC - John Chatters - 2023-266

Dear "M" -

This is a request for written clarification about the California State Licensing Board's (CSLB's) Complaint intake process and what seem to be fully illogical and unreasonable limitations for opening claims for "homeowners".

If I take the conversation I had with "Cammi", the complaint intake specialist at face value, I'm to believe the Consumer Protection Division overseeing every Contractor in the state of California has no interest in investigating a complaint against two Licensed Contractors who concealed over $120,000 in work while also receiving payments for work never done?

The disagreement between Cammi and I revolved around the idea that only "the homeowner that contracted with the contractors" is qualified to file a Complaint with the CSLB.

If that is true, why are the Bond Companies required to investigate and payout for third parties?

REC'D SEP 19 2023

September 14 2023

Hi Svetlana, This is in response to mr. Canary. I retired in April of this year and would like to get this behind me.

Mr. Canary, whom I have never met or talked to Has gone after everyone associated with work on the house he purchased from inspectors down to the house cleaners.

The cans of paint he has photos of are Kelly Moore Dura-Poxy interior paint we used on all interior doors and trim. You will notice he took the photo's so the paint color on can from where you pour it out is not visible. On the exterior we used Kelly Moore Dura-Poxy exterior. It was at the time Kelly Moore's most expensive exterior paint. Mr. Canary is lying about paint color on exterior matching an interior can of paint. Exterior color was a medium green, interior was all off whites.

As far as the pool house he thinks I was Supposed to paint. I did give a bid on it which was not accepted. I believe it was because it was in such poor shape and not worth it.

Enclosed is my bid for the garage which was added after all other painting was completed. It was completed on the 29th.

I stand behind all work I performed at 12 Bayview.

Regards

Case Review Request - Canary et al vs _____

➔ Bryan Canary <bryan@bryancanary.com> to info ▾

Sat, Jun 10, 2023, 6:39 PM ☆ ↩ Reply ⋮

Hi Jim, Alison and Laura ,

My partner and I are Monterey County residents.

We are looking for Civil Litigation Attorney(s) who do not have a significant Residential Real Estate Practice that might interfere with the pursuit of Real Estate Broker Involved Disclosure Fraud on an industry level.

Case Review request can be found as a gDoc at the following link:

- https://docs.google.com/document/d/1qHTFA_nxfkrG-Gtivggil_uJUoOeKGba7zA-fK7Ob4/edit?usp=sharing
- You can make copy after opening document by clicking "File > Make a copy" or "File > Download"

The technical portion of the statutory part of this case is summed up in under half a page.

- Getting one's head around the size of the Hoax that's been in play requires the rest of the information.
- As you will see, most/all Attorneys who have been involved in residential Disclosure Fraud situations for the past 3 decades may have committed malpractice. Thus, the need for those who would have no conflict of interest with pursuing a simple truth.

This is a personal matter for us that has affected us financially, emotionally and mentally but it's more than that too...

- This is a gross community matter that needs to be resolved once and for all, and that makes this a bit different than most requests.
- Given the community nature of this problem, after reviewing this, please provide some feedback, even if it's just "thanks for the inclusion Bryan, but we are not interested in the case". If you are not interested, further comments are appreciated but not necessary. If you don't agree with the position, comments to that effect would be appreciated. .

Please reach out with any questions or needs for clarification.

Please respond no later than 5pm, Friday June 23, 2023 so we can get a feel for who has interest in this situation.

Thanks in advance for your consideration.

Regards,
Bryan Canary

PS - Alison's background at Watsonville Law Center is very interesting. I wonder if they might be interested in this (too) ?

Hello Monterey County Bar Board Members (partially) -

I only have about 1/3 of your email addresses. Please review the image below to see who was not copied and please forward.

Doc 2a at the website below is a letter to the Monterey County Bar Association.

- <https://attorney-search-2023.bryancanary.com/>

Doc 2a is an informative letter with a DEMAND for a response.

- I believe most Attorneys would say no response is better than a grossly incriminating one.
- Whatever you do, don't provide one of those "Scooby Doo" responses where you answer questions not asked and avoid the questions asked.
- The Monterey County Association of Realtors already has that Bingo spot covered.
- It's uncomfortable to have to do this, but unsure what you would expect given the circumstances.

Some of you were cc'd on a letter last week, so this really should not come as a surprise to any of you.

70 Attorneys were contacted last week (see list below). The letter sent to them is Doc 1a on the website.

- They were provided with a very recent case precedent with a $500,000 punitive damage award on $100k in damages on a $370k home for Broker Involved Disclosure Fraud (BIDF).
- They were provided information about a slam dunk for Broker Involved Disclosure Fraud in my possession.
- My damages are 150k to 250k on a 900k home, and we have a dozen or so acts of Broker Involved Disclosure fraud.
- $500k to $1M punitive damages split with attorney seems more than reasonable.
- Heck we'd even give away the Lion's share, if that's what it took...
- Is anyone surprised not one of 70 local attorneys has replied back expressing interest yet?

When one person cheats in a regulated system it's impossible to predict it.

- If a handful of cheaters are sprinkled into a regulated system, it can be tough to discern and manage
- When every professional in two disparate industries are doing it together, it tends to stick out a LOT.
- Who thought sustaining such a GROSS and EGREGIOUS Hoax was such a good idea?
- How exactly did anyone think it was going to end?
- This is almost as bad as the FED's debt problem but on a micro scale.
- It can have no good endings for those who participated actively nor those who looked the other way.

I was only able to get a portion of the email addresses for your group.

- I was not able to get the email addresses for the President, the Judge nor the Assistant DA, along with many others.
- Please make sure they all get a copy of this.

A response is due by next Friday.

- My feelings won't be hurt in the least if you all collectively go silent.
- Please just don't keep lying or presenting a false image of Professionalism.
- And please do NOT make up something not rooted in sound RE Theory or Law that would further embarrass either of your industries further.
- That's last century stuff.

Bryan

RICO Questionnaire - General

The following are questions you can answer to determine if you are engaging in fraud.

1. By Association - Do you have any prior professional experience or engagements with Bill Jansen, Vickie Neidorf, Shannon Jones or David Hamerslough ?
2. CAR RPA - Are you willing to swear under oath that you feel contract clauses 14A, 14F, 11 and/or 12 are properly representative of CA Law? Yes or No
3. CAR RPA - Was the CA RPA provided to us to make an offer deemed a “contract” ? Yes or No
4. CAR RPA - Was a Contract to Purchase formed at time of Agreement Acceptance? Yes or No. If no, when was a contract formed?
5. REPRESENTATION STATEMENTS - Does California have generic or real estate specific laws that define when representation statements subject to fraudulent misrepresentation are due ? Yes or No If yes, what are those delivery timing requirements?

RICO Questionnaire - Specific to Affirmative Responses

Our complaint is related to the purchase of real property. The defendant is a painter. He was hired by the Seller, Seller's Agent and/or General Contract prior to the sale of the property to do painting related work. He was paid approximately $16,000 to do work. Plaintiffs contend that work concealed material facts and defects that were not then disclosed by the Seller via the presentation of his quotes, invoices or even a list of work he had completed. Furthermore, the painter did not pull permits so there was no way to know he had been engaged for 16,000 in work.

During escrow facts were presented that revealed who the painter was, some indication as to what work he had done and some quotes and estimates but not those that would have incriminated him on much fo the concealment work. Those were omitted but theory admitted he did the work and so did he. We believe those were omitted because they likely include comments about initial condition and the use of stain blockers.

Jue v Smiser clearly supports the basic principle of fraudulent misrepresentation and concealment. All material facts and defects must be shared with a buyer prior to forming a purchase agreement. Reliance for purpose of fraud / deceit stops there. Deceit includes acts of concealment.

Thus, the causes of action for fraud are for the concealment of material facts and defects while not pulling permits to make it known what work he did. There are or should be no clauses in the "purchase agreement" that the Painter, or yourself as his Attorney, should feel you can rely on for release of liability.

By law your Affirmative defenses need to be based in law and facts, even in the case of a General Denial. Absent that, Attorneys can sell false hope to Clients, which is Attorney Malpractice and the cost to weed through those for a Plaintiff are damages to a third party.

Woodbuary had 1 year notice of problems with numerous requests to remedy prior to court. An very reasonable financial offer contingent on support to provide details against the Seller and Agent was extended to rectify and he and the GC refused to engage in dialogue.

Dear John and Dave -

You are getting this email due to your work at 12 Bayview Road. As you are both aware, a tremendous amount of concealment work transpired at that property in preparation for sale.

As you may not be aware, I, as the buyer, forced documents from the Seller's Agent and Seller revealing your quotes, invoices and email dialogue related to the concealment work.

A complaint against Weinstein, Keller Williams and Coldwell bankers is now active with the California Real Estate Commission. They have hundreds upon hundreds of pages of documents. Due to size and breadth of the problems revealed in this transaction, those were made available to them and others in law enforcement via a public website: <https://home-purchase-2021.bryancanary.com/>

As you will see on that website, the FTC, the Department of Justice, the Attorney General of CA, and the Monterey County Prosecutor's office were notified of the website s and the transaction details in November 2022.

I chose not to reach out to you individually until the CA DRE investigation was active, which it is as of last week.

Attached is a detailed letter for you both with questions in the appendix.

Hopefully you will be willing to work with me to place blame where blame is due and to financially correct your involvement in this.

Please reply to this Demand for Information and Cooperation by Friday, 3/24/2023.

All initial correspondence should be done via email. If we need to have a phone conversation we can schedule that.

Thanks for your attention to these very big matters.

Bryan

Hello John and Dave -

It's been a month and a day since I sent this. You had 11 days to respond. Unfortunately, I have received nothing in response.

I will now proceed with you both and this matter another way.

- If at any point in time you'd like to have a dialogue, please reach out via email / in writing only.

If you engage any Attorneys in this to reach out, tell them to act appropriately, or they'll have a Bar Complaint filed against them before they can think twice. Here's an example of what one of those looks like. This "was" Micah's Attorney

- <https://mcar-concerns-2023.bryancanary.com/legal-corner/bar-complaint>
- It went out on 3/14/2023 and it was acknowledged by the CA Bar on 3/23/2023.

I don't want anyone to be surprised moving forward, especially any Attorneys you may try to engage.

Bryan

Dear Micah et all -

In 1948 there was a case precedent, Bagdasarian v. Gragnon, which addressed the Discovery of Defects during escrow.

"When a party learns that he has been defrauded, he may, instead of rescinding, elect to stand on the contract and sue for damages, and, in such case his continued performance of the agreement does not constitute a waiver of his action for damages. "

In 1994 there was another relevant Case Precedent, Jue vs Smiser, related to defects found during escrow which reinforces the older one..

"The Plaintiffs discovery of the true facts after signing a real property purchase agreement, but before the close of escrow, does not preclude a finding of justifiable reliance with the respect to false representations made by the defendant before the purchase agreement was signed. The plaintiffs reliance at the inception of the agreement is sufficient to support recovery for fraud".

In 1993 there was another relevant case precedent, Loughgrin vs Superior Court...

"The purchase contract was not intended to insulate Seller from Liability for misrepresentation in the preparation of the statutory disclosure form."

In 2022, there was another relevant case precedent, Jiminez vs Capero

A $350,000 home was conveyed with $100,000 in non-disclosed defects that involved willfully fraudulent behavior of the Agent(s).

The award for that fraud was $100,000 in compensatory damages and $500,000 in punitive damages.

A 5x multiplier for fraud is a "suggestion" in CA courts, but there are no statutory requirements. It could be less, but it could also be much more.

The Frauds committed there pale in comparison to the decet-filled, spiteful and predatory nature of EVERYONE in this transaction... with special emphasis on the two contractors, the two inspectors, Kent, yourself and several in my own Brokerage.

I shifted to CRIMINAL COMPLAINTS in a very public way...

Criminal Complaints - Monterey County DA

In the past 2 weeks I have completed the process of filing 14 Criminal Complaints against every licensed person, contractor and inspector that was involved in our transaction as well as you.

You, Micah, are one of those 14, because you funded what turned out to be a $200,000 fix up and disclosure fraud scheme. I can not succinctly describe the mountain of POO you are facing, and neither can many others at this time, because nobody ever dreamed anyone would actually be able to track, unwind and document one of these fix up and fraud schemes. Those Engineering skills and an understanding of document control sure come in handy sometimes....

- You paid two contractors $55,000 to create and/or conceal $120,000 in defects
- Kent paid two inspectors about $800 to omit over $60,000 in defects any novice inspector would have called out with ease -- in reports that were given to us as "your" representation statements about as is condition
- You paid Keller Williams $45,000 in brokerage fees to execute a sale via a fully fraudulent process
- You paid Kent Weinstein _____ in additional funds for managing your property and overseeing all the work to fix it up (I don't what you paid. i assume it was something. Even if it was zero it's of little relevance)
- In addition to provided numerous documents and statments from others that were fully fraudulent, you yourself made numerous false statements and omissions on documents you provided (late).

1 Year for Prosecution - The District Attorney still has just over 1 year to do investigations, with or without my support, for the bulk of the frauds committed by the "Bayview 14". And when I say "without" I don't mean "without". I have 1000's of pages already published. I just mean without me nipping at their heels if we can all come to a financial settlement first.

- The Jail time for Grand theft is up to 3 years for under 60k and 4 years for over 60k, and that's something that not only you might face given the extensive and actual fraud that transpired, but MANY of the others might face it too, with the Contractors and Inspectors both first on the list, but the others not far behind
- For Felony Fraud, it seems the Monterey County DA can pursue Restitution for us with a $200,000 target, and she can pursue treble damages (3x) for another $600,000., from any combination of the "Bayview 14" she deems fit, and I'm not sure it all stops there.

4 years for Prosecution for Racketeering - Given I didn't discover the Jue vs Smiser Case precedent until a few weeks ago, and prior to that, I had a logical case for racketeering but could get no Attorneys to validate it, with the case precedents that PROVE IT, arguably she has 4 years from now to complete an investigation into industry wide racketeering, with our case as the cause for that.

Website - As you (all) might imagine, I presented my documents via a public website as I wanted to make sure nothing got lost or buried in the filing process. At some point soon I will share that with you all for those who haven't come across the URL already Civil Complaints - Me vs _____ { Chatters // Carriaga // Vierra // Palacios // others} --- in separate Torts...

I would have Civil Attorneys hounding all of you already IF I had found any that weren't in on the 38 year hoax and/or the cover up.

The latest Attorney victim of an exposing phone call was a good Jewish man who screened our call by asking for names of the seller and agent before asking for Brokerage names, as any good attorney should have done first. When I told that good Jewish man the name of Forstein and Weinstein, I figured he'd start piling on false poo, and damn did he. On behalf of your tribe, presumably without knowing who either of you were, he proceeded to make over 10 false statements of fact about CA Law while excluding the most relevant case precedents. Can you imagine why he might have done that? Can you imagine who I shared that experience with?

My intentions as of now are to personally file SEPARATE torts against everyone BUT you in the next 35 days, if we don't all come to a settlement.

The reason I'm not filing against you right away may become clear later.

In civil court I can pursue compensatory damages and FIVE TIMES THAT, or more... so my $200,000 goes to $1.2 Million or far more... AND it would require all of you all to make statements that might be incriminating of ourselves or others in Criminal Investigations

Chatters - 120k --> 720k in damages

Carriaga ----> 5k to 23k --> 25k to 125k

Vierra ----> 50k ----> 250k (and there's no way in hades your little disclaimer about use for representation will over you, especially given you then give buyers instructions for what to ask sellers about)

Travalle --> You say you've handled 15,000 Transactions? and you didn't know the TDS really was due to a buyer BEFORE Agreement Acceptance if it contained any material facts at all? AND you allowed three patently incomplete statutory documents through your hands without getting the Selling Broker involved? What kind of "professional" does that?

Palacios ./ Whyte - You all thought it a good idea to deal in incomplete documents too, without getting the Selling Broker involved and intimidating us with a statement that we might lose a transaction we had secured, to an included title the day prior?

there's not one of you that has any business stepping into court against me. not one of you.

In the coming days I will be sending out a "Negotiation Letter"

I am going to present EXTREMELY ATTRACTIVE settlement offers for everyone but Micah.

if you all cover most of his debts, maybe he and/or I can go after the big money -- and maybe if we win, might forgive yours

Dear "Bayview 14" --

In return for the attempts to invert everything in our transaction, I'm returning the favor.

Instead of filing complaints first and then notifying you and others, I've published the complaints, I've notified 40 local politicians and there were DOZENS of local attorneys on the BCC

John, David, Robert, Brannon and Alex,

Please review your complaints / these complaints. If you'd like to avoid a court case where I pursue the full amount listed with the potential of piling on more for personal injury, start negotiating with me. Make me an offer to settle these before I have to file them. As of now, I'll be representing myself, so I have no legal fees. Do keep that in mind and do note my comments below of what transpires if I have to file them.

If you want to start a dialogue, reach out via email and we can continue in writing or setup a time to talk by phone. I do not advise you to get an Attorney involved but understand if you feel the need. If they contact me on your behalf, make sure they follow proper legal and ethical protocols or it will reflect on my pursuit for remedy from each of you, as well as them.

For those not covered in these complaints, yours are in draft.

I have another letter/email prepared for "the bayview 14", with more information that I may or may not send later today or in coming days.

The five of you listed on the complaints below have until Friday March 15 at 5pm PST to make contact and make progress towards expressing your desires for remedy. Or, tell me to "pound sand", in which case I'll move forward with complaint filing and will cease with any further courtesy.

Bryan

Comments:

- 95% of this content contains already proven / Indisputable facts supporting fraud via documents and attestation statments already obtained.
- Other than minor damage overlap matters that are duplicated in complaints for simplicity, these are as close as you might ever see to "default judgment" material in this type of setting.
- I don't need interrogatories.
- I don't need depositions.
- The information I could obtain in those is 1) is only trivial to substantiate damages 2) can only go further to prove conspiracy with others or isolate defendants in the frauds 3) might reveal other properties and people that perpetrated and/or were affected by similar behavior over the past 38 years.
- Links to these can also be found at : <https://criminal-complaints-2024.bryancanary.com/re-fix-up-disclosure-scheme/level1-complaints>

Complaint Legal Basis

The complaints have been drawn up with the following legal bases.

1. Fraud without privity of contract,
2. Bagdasarian v. Gagnon and Jue vs Smiser precedents established when fraud can be identified in a real estate transaction (as if common law fraudulent misrepresentation needed more case precedents?)
3. A 2019 presentation made to San Francisco Bar members by Attorneys from San Diego and Northern CA related to "real estate fraud" complaint strategies. It includes direct reference to Jue vs Smiser , compensatory damages, punitive damages, and personal injury. It focuses on fraud of Seller, Agents, and Brokers and will be used for those complaints more, but is applicable to this scenario too
4. A 2022 case precedent of Jimenez vs Capero establishes precedent for 5x for punitive damages for fraud related to non-disclosure of defects in a real estate transaction.

An internet search for "real estate fraud monterey county" reveals something very unusual???

- If one does an internet search for "real estate fraud Monterey county" not a single Monterey County Law firm comes up in that search. Not one...
- The same is not said for other Counties. At least three firms come up when done for Santa Cruz county.
- That establishes an interesting fact about the way in which "real estate fraud" as criminal activity has been suppressed for a very large and affluent California county. Or is it because law firms have made ZERO reference to real estate fraud on their websites and/or created SEO rules to be excluded from those searches? How did this transpire? The average legal consumer doing such a search would presume there simply are no "real estate fraud" problems in Monterey County, contrary to my experience for damn sure.
- The Attorney in Santa Cruz County with the most layman friendly website and public education for Real Estate Fraud was contacted.
 - In a 45 minute conversation, he made no less than 20 false statements of fact about the pursuit of real estate fraud relevant to my case.
 - All of his positions relied on the idea that Jue vs Smiser did not exist.
 - At one point he tried to use a car purchase for an analogy, when typical car purchases have no executory period after execution (along with a ton of other dis-similarities)
 - Every time I shut him down, he spun another way, with seemingly no peripheral vision it was all being documented and shared.
 - I didn't even have to play dumb. I could challenge him and instead of realizing he was smoked, he'd push back? Does that mean he may have actually been that ignorant of facts and laws? That idea is more terrifying than the idea he lied for 45 minutes on the phone.
 - That was an unfortunate conversation to have for him, and all others similarly situated in more ways than one.

These complaints have been presented to the DA for her reference.

- These are my civil complaints ,but they obviously identify gross acts of criminal fraud as well.

The Bayview 14 -- Commercial Literacy Program for the 21st Century

These will be presented to the individuals named in the coming days/weeks.

- They will have a very short time to negotiate to avoid formal filing.
- If they negotiate I may try to be considerate of damages and home foreclosure issues that might affect each of them.
- If they push me to file the complaints, I will pursue them ferociously. If I miss due to inexperience or a technical issue, I will then become far more aggressive with the DA to pursue my damages via restitution
- Any attorneys representing them will need to be mindful of proper legal discourse with minimal gas lighting in my direction or that of the court.
- I do not view sharing these with you as a conflict of interest in your potential representation for them or the Brokers or Agents who will be named in other complaints in draft now.
- This is public information. These are my public statements of fact. They are mean to be refuted to establish a complaint worthy of trial to start with. Otherwise, it's a default judgment.

At this point, I am interested in hiring a local attorney to consult me on complaint formatting and basic rules and procedures of court (or accepting pro bono services for that limited level of support).

- I believe rules of court allow this type of consulting service and it does not require disclosure by me or by the supporting attorneys. If I'm wrong, please correct me.
- Truthfully, a pro bono service to ensure proper formatting and minimal procedural errors seems appropriate, given the community service being provided as a supplement to our own financial and emotional recovery.
- If none is provided, the courts may force it given the Pro Se statements we've made in the complaints. Be sure to check those out. They are in each complaint.
- I'd imagine we'll get it one way or another if these have to be filed.

===== <https://the-bayview-14.bryancanary.com/> =====

As a Group, there were 14 people who committed fraud that directly affected us. That group has been branded as "The Bayview 14".

The technique Kent, Robert and Peter Whyte, our transaction coordinator attempted to use to hypnotize us or get us to eject from the transaction was "OVERWHELM". I'm returning all that energy to all of them now, by a factor of 10, because I can and because it's due to them.

They have been written into a book that will likely become a screenplay and a movie once the dust settles.

- A preview of the images and picture style book can be found at: <https://the-bayview-14.bryancanary.com/>
- They just became the Case Study for Real Estate Law, Contract Law and Civil Law as part of my new Commercial Literacy Educational Program.
- If I have my way, it will become the leading curriculum for educating future Real Estate buyers, sellers, agents, brokers and attorneys globally, simultaneously .
- When the universe gives you Lemons, you make damn sure Lemons become the most sought after bitter on the Planet.
- That's why they were once the rare fruit of Kings, Queens and High Priests only.

Write your own ending...

Each of them now has an opportunity to "write their own ending".

- In truth, I will write it for them, but what shall be written will be the continuation of a truthful reflection of the Acts each chooses to take, now that the lights have turned on, and their involvement in dark acts have been exposed.

In addition to being a Licensed Contractor and Real Estate Agent in another state, with an Engineering Degree, a Master of Business, and a Certification in Hypnotherapy, I'm also one hell of an investigative reporter, publisher, writer, educator and storyteller. One of my areas of expertise is "commercial conspiracy" and my work prior to this train wreck was building out the world's most novel resource for Commercial Education.

A review of that work a bit back revealed My Business Law Section was deficient. I had some personal experience but not enough to be viewed as an expert in some subset of the field of Law. That deficiency is now remedied.

For all that coincidence, Congratulations are in order.

Regards

Bryan

Dear Bayview 14 plus Paul -

I've just sent Micah and his attorney Paul Kibel 2 documents.

1. Response to Kibel - one is a response to his attorney, Paul Kibel. Paul is an Environmental Law Attorney. who does not know or understand Real Estate Law. The dialogue with him so far proves Attorneys in CA are trying to use pseudo legal documents to define law instead of using law to show the documents were pseudo legal. it's a real mess but hopefully with this Paul will have an opportunity to answer some simple questions for Micah. The document attached explains that in detail and it outlines the pseudo legal document fraud in detail.
2. Complaint Draft for Micah - it's currently 53 pages long. formatting could be better and causes of action not done, but gives and idea of what his looks like.

see attached.

Have you all thought about trying to get together and approaching KW and Coldwell Banker to demand support for settlements ? They are the two companies that encouraged micah, kent and pamela to believe all this would work out.

Maybe Paul could do that for you all as a group on Micah's dime ?.

John, David, Robert and Alex, - you've got 24 hours left to p/u a dialogue.

Bryan

Work Comparison - Plaintiff v Defendant to this point

The paper on the left is 2" thick. Approximately 300 pages. Approximately 100-200 hours in work. It's all custom to this complaint

The paper on the right is a templated response. Nothing about it is custom even though it was supposed to be. It could easily have been prepared and filed in 30 minutes.

The Defendant was given 1 year notice of complaint. 3 week notice prior to filing with copy of complaint. 38 days to answer his complaint. He failed to respond.

Defense Attorney "swooped in" presumably for a handsome fee, did 30 minutes of work and seeks to "undo" a process Plaintiff indicted in good faith over 2 months ago on 3/22/2024.

The justification provided for the reprieve was Attorney mistake, inadvertance, surprise, excusable neglect.

The Attorney stated in an email not sent due to his own email serve block if Plaintiffs did not remove the default he would file a motion " which the court will grant".

He had many chances to make his position known. When forced by a Bond Company he provided enough to be tried in his onw absence.

This motion should clearly be denied.
