Why do we love working at The Wellery?

We work together to deliver an impressive experience. This means representing our purpose and values to achieve what is best for our patients/clients, and ultimately our brand. We embrace others' differences and the unique skills and abilities each of us brings – our differences make us stronger. We challenge each other respectfully, but always ground ourselves to patient/client-centric decisions. We manage through conflict positively and put our egos aside. Our patients deserve the best. We have to deliver every time. We have high standards for our clinic and each other. We jump at opportunities to improve our service, efficiency, and productivity.

The Wellery provides equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, creed, gender, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information or characteristics, marital status, familial status, veteran or military status, status regarding public assistance, membership or activity in a local commission, or any other protected status in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws.
