

Buyer Persona

Demographic:

- Name: David
- Age: 42
- Brief Description: David is a middle-aged man who used to be very active in sports during his younger years. He's noticed a decline in his energy, stamina, and overall vigor over the past few years. David has a stable job, is married with two kids, and lives in a suburban neighborhood.

Core Problem:

- The Core Problem They Face: David feels the effects of declining testosterone levels associated with aging. This has led to fatigue, decreased muscle mass, weight gain, reduced libido, and a dip in his self-confidence.
- Top 5 Emotions Around That Problem:
  1. Frustration
  2. Insecurity
  3. Desperation
  4. Embarrassment
  5. Resignation
- Top 5 Biggest Fears:
  1. Losing his physical attractiveness and becoming undesirable.
  2. Being perceived as 'old' or 'less of a man'.
  3. Inability to perform sexually.

4. Not being able to keep up with his kids or younger peers in physical activities.
  5. Developing health problems related to low testosterone.
- 5 Ways Those Fears Affect Close Relationships:
    1. Decreased intimacy with his spouse due to reduced libido.
    2. Avoiding social situations or outings with younger colleagues or friends.
    3. Increased irritability leading to arguments with family.
    4. Self-isolation from loved ones due to feelings of shame.
    5. An inability to engage in family activities, making his kids feel distant.
  - 5 Conversational But Hurtful Things Those Relationships Might Say:
    1. "You're not the same man I married."
    2. "Why don't you play with the kids anymore?"
    3. "Is it me? Don't you find me attractive anymore?"
    4. "You've really let yourself go."
    5. "Maybe you should try that new gym, it might help you get back in shape."

Other Solutions:

- What They've Tried in the Past:
  1. Prescription testosterone replacement therapy.
  2. Over-the-counter supplements with unverified claims.
  3. Diet changes.
  4. Rigorous exercise regimes.
  5. Lifestyle alterations (like reducing alcohol).

- Brief Conversational Soundbites About What They've Tried in the Past:

1. "The prescription meds had too many side effects."
2. "I spent a fortune on those supplements, but nothing changed."
3. "Changing my diet helped a bit, but not enough."
4. "No matter how much I exercise, it's not like before."
5. "Even after cutting down on drinks, I still feel sluggish."

- What They Don't Want to Do to Fix Their Problem:

1. Rely on synthetic hormones for life.
2. Spend money on ineffective or harmful solutions.
3. Undergo invasive procedures or surgeries.
4. Constantly feel dependent or helpless.
5. Give up their favorite activities or change their entire lifestyle.

- Brief Conversational Soundbites About What They Don't Want to Do:

1. "I don't want to be popping pills every day."
2. "I've wasted enough money on fake promises."
3. "Surgery? That's a last resort."
4. "I just want to feel independent again."
5. "I'm not giving up on the things I love."

Primary Transformation:

- If a Genie Could Snap Their Fingers and Give Them The Perfect Solution, What Would Their Life Look Like?: David would wake up feeling energetic, confident in his body and mind. He'd have a defined physique, a vibrant sex life, and the mental clarity to excel in his profession.

- How Would It Affect 3-4 Of Their Closest Relationships?: His spouse would feel more connected and satisfied with their intimate life. David's kids would enjoy a more active and engaged father. His colleagues would respect and admire his vigor and clarity, potentially leading to new professional opportunities.

Market Specifics:

- What Does the Market Hinge Their Success On?: Achieving a balanced and natural testosterone level that enhances their overall well-being and daily function.
  - What Does the Market Have to Give Up By Giving Up Their Problem?: The 'excuse' to not engage in activities, a reason to receive sympathy, or the perceived comfort of resignation.
  - Who Does the Market Blame For Their Problem?: Aging, misconceptions promoted by media, pharmaceutical industries, and a fast-paced lifestyle.
  - Top 5 Biggest Objections the Market Might Have For Their Problem:
    1. Skepticism about another 'miracle' solution.
    2. Worries about potential side effects.
    3. Concerns about the cost.
    4. Uncertainty if it will work for their specific situation.
    5. The fear of becoming dependent on a product.
