

Important information for students who took the PSAT/NMSQT on

Tuesday, October 22, 2024

Score Release Date: Wednesday, November 6th

Congratulations on taking the PSAT/NMSQT®. You've completed a big step on your journey to college. Now's the time to make the most of your scores and effort. Be sure to: Log in to or create a College Board account online to see your scores and receive test performance feedback.

Get free, personalized, SAT practice. The PSAT/NMSQT is great preparation for the SAT®. Your score unlocks free, personalized practice through Official SAT Practice on Khan Academy®. Visit sat.practice.org, create an account, and link your College Board and Khan Academy accounts for a plan based on your test results. Using Official SAT Practice on Khan Academy.

Receive AP course recommendations. Your score report identifies AP® courses that are the best match for you. AP can give you an edge in the admission process and help you earn college credit while in high school, which saves both time and money in college.

See if you are eligible for College Board National Recognition Programs. These are academic honors that can be included on college applications. They're not scholarships, but colleges use them to identify academically exceptional students. Learn more.

Get started on BigFuture. Explore colleges, majors, and careers based on your interests.

Practice and improve. Seniors are eligible to earn money for college by practicing for the SAT and improving their score through College Board BigFuture Scholarships.

Register for the SAT. Take the next step toward college by registering. Juniors will be automatically registered for our campus School Day SAT on Tuesday, March 4th, 2025.

Questions? To learn about your PSAT/NMSQT scores and getting ready for college, we invite students, parents, and families to visit with their campus alpha counselor.