

DPMI Metacognition Reflection Guide

Monitoring your own learning

Ask Yourself...

- What did I get out of this week?
- What am I learning from this?
- Do I have questions?
- Do I understand it well enough to apply it?

Leveraging what you know

Ask yourself...

- What do I know from “anywhere” that can help me with challenges faced this week?

Using both brain hemispheres

Ask yourself...

- Can I use images and words to unpack this week?
- Can I uncover patterns, links and relationships visually?

Reflective practice

Ask yourself...

- How does the focus of the week compare to what I currently do?
- What do I want to change about what I currently do?
- What further work do I need to do?

Reflective practice (more questions)

- How did I interact with the people in my group?
- How can I best leverage the group’s “collective “intelligence”?

Consciously making connections

Ask yourself...

- How can I apply tools from this week?
- Where can I apply it?

Leveraging the knowledge of others

Ask yourself...

- What do my colleagues know about this?
- What insights do they have that can enrich my understanding?
