

Searching for a Theme

Make a copy for each story read, share and link it to the unit one blog page.

Characters Protagonist Cole Antagonist Gavin Static Characters: Gavin	Setting Time: Highschool Place:	Problem: Which type of conflict? Pardon vs person
Summary: (You can use Somebody/wanted/ but/ so for a quick summary recap) Cole and Gavin wanted to prank a kid at school but Gavin took them too far so Cole had to stop him from doing anymore.
What message is the author conveying? How do you know? The message the author is trying to convey is a strong motive can push people to do anything to achieve what they want such as revenge. Gavin and Cole had been best friends but Gavin wanted revenge on the people who did him any sort of wrong or that he did not like and that urged him to begin killing for revenge.
A lesson learned by a character (review characters, setting and problem) The character learned that they have to trust the facts even if they don't like the outcome or they cannot believe them.
What is THE MESSAGE you can take from the story? Include the author's name when referring to the message. The theme from Wickedpedia by Chris Van Etten is do what's right you may not like it but it has to be done it could change the ideas you have of someone but that must be put aside for the greater good.		