Chapters 8-10 (VIII-X) Questions: Answer in complete sentences, on separate lined paper. Label your answers. These are due 11/7.

1. How does the Ancient help Ranofer view being a stonecutter in a new way?
2. Before he visits with Zau, Ranofer imagines his conversation with him. What does Ranofer hope from Zau?
3. What challenge does Zau present to Ranofer?
4. What examples of Gebu's wealth does Ranofer notice? AND, what conclusion does Ranofer make about this new wealth? (ANSWER BOTH PARTS)
5. What does Ranofer find when he searches Gebu's room? AND How does Ranofer think Gebu came to possess this thing?
6. Why do you think Ranofer endures a beating from Gebu over his 'forgotten wages' rather than tell his half-brother the truth about where he has been?
7. Outside the gate and alone in the night, Ranofer becomes frightened. What does he do for protection? Does it work?

EXTRA CREDIT: Read Psalm 91:1-16 OR John 14:27 and 16:33. Answer: IF Ranofer knew these truths, how might he have overcome fear and found some peace?
