City Schools of Decatur Hosts Annual Teacher Job Fair

DECATUR, Ga. – City Schools of Decatur’s Human Resources Department invites teachers to the CSD Teacher Job Fair on Saturday, March 7, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Talley Street Elementary School, located at 2617 Talley St., Decatur, GA 30030.

Teachers interested in beginning or continuing their careers in education can meet with CSD recruiters at the job fair to learn about district job openings. Attendees may register for the teacher job fair here.

CSD is a public charter school district located near the heart of Atlanta that consistently ranks among the top ten districts in Georgia. The school district supports approximately 5,500 students residing within the city's four-square-mile area, offering public education from 0-3 to Pre-K and Kindergarten through 12th grade. CSD employs over 900 full- and part-time staff, including more than 500 teachers, and comprises four neighborhood elementary schools, one middle school, one high school, an Early Childhood Learning Center, and one virtual academy.

The teacher-to-student ratio in CSD is 14:1, and salaries in CSD rank among the top quartile in the metro RESA area. According to CSD teacher surveys, roughly 90% of teachers agreed that they feel successful at supporting their students' academic development, do meaningful work together in teams, build trusting relationships with parents, and feel like administrators at their school respect staff, students, and families of all backgrounds.

With an impressive graduation rate of 96.04%, CSD students consistently outperform state and national averages on standardized tests across all grade levels, resulting in a long history of
