What Our Studio Is About

RPS, under a different name initially, was formed on November 19th 2018, we are a multi-fandom studio that specializes mainly in editing cartoons, anime, video games, & movies. We only allow ANIMATED media currently as live action, gacha, etc are not allowed to be used. We cover a variety of themes from light hearted to dark, and we mainly edit songs in the rock-alternative criteria, but we do not mind stepping out of that genre in special cases such as Christmas, New Years, or Valentines MEPs. We are accepting of all styles and sorts of medias, though we do push for a FX/Raw style, we try to be a studio for different editors to come together and create some neat MEPs out of passion.

INFORMATION

AUDITION DATES

Auditions will be held once a year, that time of year will fluctuate depending on what is going on with the leaders and conditions of the studio at the moment. Auditions are scheduled for April 25th 2021. We will release a video with a google form in the description for you to fill out and submit a video there, as long as it falls under our accepted criteria as listed in the audition rules.

GENERAL MEMBER REQUIREMENTS

YOU MUST HAVE A DISCORD AND BE IN OUR SERVER!

This is to make communication swift & easy, we will frequently post updates about MEPs, changes in the studio, where you are at in terms of strike lists, etc, it is impossible to properly communicate with you without being in our server, so being in it is required.

BE ACTIVE:

DO NOT join if you are not going to be active, as a member/guest you will be expected to be in our MEPs. You are not required to join every single one but based on what your role is, you are required to join a certain amount and failing to do so will get you striked. Failing the strike list 3 times will get you kicked as a member of the studio. DO NOT be a ghost member.

COMMUNICATION:

Communication is essential! If you are on a hiatus, need to drop, or something is going on, please let us know! You do not need to give personal details, but we want to know where you are at and so we don't unfairly punish you. We have had members in the past disappear or ghost without a word and it is stressful & frustrating for us.

READ THE UPDATES/RULES:

I understand pings can be annoying and stressful and we do not try to be annoying with it, but we do want to keep you guys in the loop as much as we can. If we ask you for updates or a moderator reminds you, please respond or update us.

STRIKE LIST:

A strike list is a list of all members and what/how many MEPs they join in to make sure they are meeting their requirements, those requirements are:

Members - FOUR MEPS every 6 months

Guest Members - TWO MEPS every 6 months

Those who fail to meet these requirements will be struck, if they get 3 strikes in total they will be removed from the studio.

Those who meet the requirements on point or are a little over will not be struck.
(Obviously)

Those who go beyond and join most of the MEPs in that respective period will be rewarded with a role and selection of special privileges for the remainder of the next period.

There are two strike periods each year.

First Strike Period:

JANUARY 25TH - JULY 24TH

Second Strike Period:

July 25th - JANUARY 24TH

Sign ups released from January to June will be counted for the first period.
Sign ups released July to December will be counted for the second period.

If you feel you have been struck unfairly, please let us know, depending on your reasons you may receive a warning instead (you can also receive warnings if you are close to meeting the requirement but not quite such as $\frac{1}{2}$ or $\frac{3}{4}$, but this only happens once and even if you get those again next time it is a strike unless you have good reasons otherwise.)

IMPORTANT THINGS TO REGARD:

- Taking extra parts will not count, it is appreciated yes, but you will still be counted as one in the final list.
- Any new batch of editors inducted into the studio during the process of a on-going strike list will not be counted until the next one starts up (if new members joined in say, June, they wouldn't be on the list until July 25th)
- Members who repeatedly drop or not do parts they signed up for without a good reason for will be warned & struck after a certain amount of times. (Regardless if on strike list or not)
- Members who break studio rules & bring in drama/disrespect the leaders can receive strikes (Regardless if on strike list or not)

GENERAL MEP STANDARDS

- Our deadlines will be from anywhere to 4-6 weeks from the deadline (around a month or so)
- As we are a multi-multifandom studio, we allow just about most medias. HOWEVER, depending on the host, different standards will be allowed for certain MEPs, a leader is free to ask you to change/not allow certain medias if they do not feel it is suitable for the theme.
- Medias for sure that ARE excluded from all MEPs are: Live action, porn, sso, & gacha life

- You may use adult-targeted media (A.E Bojack Horseman or Beastars) you cannot use any scenes involving or showcasing sexual conduct or extreme gore from those shows, the same applies to fanarts that are used (you cannot use nsfw or nudity). If you are unsure if something crosses the line, please ask the host before doing your part if they feel it is okay.
- Please use quality footage (720/1080) for your parts, as well and make sure they are sent in that quality. We will post medias and links in the #footage-and-medias channel in the discord, and we can try to help find what you need.
- Any program (that doesn't have a watermark) is welcome in our studio. We do not judge you based on the program you use.
 - SHIPPING MEPS: We will not usually do direct shipping MEPs unless it is a Valentines MEP, but we do allow ships to be used within our MEPs depending on the theme.
 - Incestous or pedophilic ships are NOT allowed under any circumstances.
- Extensions: Extensions will be 3 days, we do not mind giving an extra day or two if needed, but do try to get your parts in by this time. Failing to update us or ask for an extension will get you replaced.
 - We have the right to ask you to fix things in your part if we feel something is off.
- Do not put editor watermarks on your part, we will be doing that for you in the final MEP.

- SEND YOUR PARTS IN USING EITHER: Mediafire, MEGA, or Google Drive, and using the form placed in the parts chat (DO NOT send your parts on the sign up!)

DISCORD RULES

General rules that apply to everyone in the server

- This should be a given, but be respectful to EVERYONE in the server. We do not tolerate disrespect towards ANYONE.
- DRAMA or talk of DRAMA is absolutely NOT welcome in our studio, if there are issues please DM one of the staff!
- DO NOT speak negatively of other studios, or editors, we do not mind you mentioning them but bashing or openly criticising is not allowed. Not only is it rude and talking behind another's back, but it can get us in trouble with other studios which we very much do not want.
- Criticism is allowed, make sure it is constructive and helpful thou (please do not get upset if someone offers you advice or criticism)
- Post in the correct channels, if you want to share a meme, it goes in the meme chat, not the general one.
- Do not post or promote other studios that are not affiliated. You may share COMPLETED MEPs from theirs in #pics-and-vids-sharing
- You can post and share personal sign ups on your own channel in #personal-sign-ups!

- Please refrain from talk about politics, a Trump joke is fine here & there, but it is very divided & intense right now and I rather not have the issue come up.
- If a moderator or leader asks you of something, listen and do so. They are to be respected like everyone else and are doing their job. If you have concerns about a possible abuse of power, please DM one of us!
- DO NOT spam or hassle the staff, we will get to you when we can.
- Refrain from arrogant remarks about yourself or others, such as “No one is as good as an editor as me/that studio/editor” we are here to edit for fun, not egos, please be respectful and courteous of everyone around you.
- Anyone caught repeatedly breaking rules will be kicked/banned, if a member is caught doing this, they will receive a studio strike regardless if on the list or not. Auditioners will not be allowed to join the studio.
