

Peter Luttrull is an Indianapolis based saxophonist, educator, and arranger with diverse musical and educational experience.

Peter received his Bachelor's degree in Saxophone Performance from Indiana Wesleyan University. He also holds a Masters's degree in Jazz Studies from the world-renown Jazz program at Michigan State University.

While at Michigan State, Peter performed with Christian McBride, Peter Bernstein, Brian Lynch, Kenny Barron, and Louis Hayes. Peter has performed throughout the United States and can currently be seen playing in the Indianapolis area.

Peter is an adjunct professor at Indiana Wesleyan University, teaches private lessons, and works as a guest clinician for Indiana Jazz festivals.

Contact Information:
peter@peterluttrull.com
peterluttrull.com