Production Company Etiquette

Being a member of a production company

Being a part of Anything Goes requires a great deal of time and dedication. You hereby commit to do your part to make this production a successful experience and a happy memory for everyone involved. You acknowledge no role is better than another and agree to work with the directors and company members to create the ensemble needed to make the show a success. You were chosen over many other people to be a part of this Production Company, so, respect yourself, those around you and live up to everyone's belief in you.

PROFESSIONAL ATTITUDE FOR CAST AND CREW

* Check the callboard daily. We will utilize the BAND APP for this production–chromebook friendly! :)

* Attend all calls for rehearsal and crew.

* Rehearsals and crew calls are never missed without prior permission.

* Check the Show Schedule and clear all dates indicated.

* Any absence must be cleared in advance with the director. (This means asking if it is okay to miss – not telling the director that you are going to be gone.)

* All line deadlines are to be strictly honored.

* All cast and crew members will assist in building the set and the collection/making of props.

* All cast and crew members will assist in the strike at the conclusion of the run.

* All cast and crew members are responsible for the maintenance of the auditorium, shop, classroom, storage areas, and dressing rooms and for cleaning up after themselves and returning equipment/tools/supplies to their proper place.

* Conversation backstage, either in rehearsal or performance, should be restricted to matters concerning the production. Repetitive requests to be quiet will result in you being sent home from rehearsal and/or removed from the show permanently.

* Cell phones will be collected daily during the rehearsal. They will be a container designated to hold the cell phones and keep them safe.

* Your grades must not suffer while you are a part of this production. If your grades begin to drop, you will do something about it. If you do nothing and fail, you will be removed from the production. You have adequate time during rehearsal to work on homework so always have it with you.

YOU AND YOUR APPEARANCE

* Actors, please check with your director before any haircuts, dye jobs, tanning etc. that will change even minutely the look with which you auditioned and were offered the role.

Hygiene

Company members are expected to meet hygiene requirements .

- Maintain personal cleanliness by bathing daily.
- Oral hygiene (brushing of teeth) required.

Ms. Cantrell: : 469-633-5736 cantrello@friscoisd.org

- A rehearsal schedule will be provided to you. Please take note of the times of each rehearsal. It is imperative that cast and crew members show up on time and leave at the appropriate time. (Directors and students are equally busy and need to get home.)
- Students need their scripts, pencils and highlighters in order to be successful! Please be off-book by the deadline and do not lose your script. As a reminder, if you have checked out a script from Concord, the replacement fee for a lost or damaged script is $35.00 and is your responsibility.
- Costumes, set pieces and props are expensive! Please respect both our property and your own so that we can have a great show! More information will be coming home soon with your student.
