

Hi [manager's name],

I'd love to expense a subscription to trutle.com. It's a personalized tech intelligence tool that helps me stay ahead of the latest trends, tools, competitors, and market shifts in our industry, and generally getting better at my job.

It's like having a real-time radar for emerging technologies, product moves, funding news, patents, and more, all curated specifically for my role and focus areas.

The subscription is €58.80/year (or €4.90/month), and if it saves me even a few hours of manual research or helps us act faster on one key opportunity, it more than pays for itself.

I'd love to subscribe. Please let me know if that's OK.

Thanks very much,
[your name]
