Summer Assignment:

1. The Outline
    a. Download the outline of notes for the summer assignment. This outline is designed to only give you the topic discussed; therefore, the detail and analysis will need to be filled in by you. However, don't overdo it with the notes. Simply identify the definition of the topic on the outline and discuss the significance. This document contains an outline for the video.
2. The Video
    a. This video was created by me to evaluate the first hundred years of American history. The Advanced Placement course refers to this section as Unit 1: 1491 – 1607. Please watch and take notes on the video.
3. Take notes
    a. You may use any format of notes (MLA, concept mapping, standard outlining, bullet pointing, etc.).
    b. Use the outline as the guide to determine the important material.
    c. Make sure you define and explain the importance when you are taking notes. ***
    d. At the beginning of the year, I will give you credit for the notes that you have taken.
    e. I prefer that you handwrite your notes.
4. In class
    a. The material you learn over the summer will be very important to both the start of the class and most assessments taken during the course.

Quick review:
Download the outline if not included in your packet.
Take notes over the video
Keep your notes for credit at the beginning of the year
