'As Hell rumbles with the threat of an infernal war, a ride-or-die crew of demons navigate the underworld, chasing meaning through a whirlwind of bounties, brawls, and high-stakes heists.'

'HEATHENS' is a western-anime-styled, action-comedy, dark fantasy 2D indie animation project about demons, devotion, and an era coming to an end. With the success of our Kickstarter and the production of episode 0's 'Hellhounders' underway, we're preparing for the next :)

This callout form is for anyone interested in helping us with this project as the roles listed! If we think you'll be a great fit for the team, we'll contact you :)

Please Keep in Mind:

- While yes this is a paid project, please keep in mind *this is an indie animation so we're on an indie budget. Payment will also be sent through Wise, so please have that set up. (Wise can do direct bank transfers as well btw).
- Working on Heathens is more like a side gig, so please don't expect it to replace your day jobs!
- We're not able to supply any paid software, so please be sure to have it already!
- Communication is key. We do weekly/biweekly-ish check-ins, so please keep us regularly updated!
- Due to high number of responses, we cannot respond to everyone with the outcome of their application.
- Please be 18+ only!
