

KATE CLOW/
Kardelen Karlı

Personal information:
kateclowcrs@gmail.com

Education:
Open University (UK)
Marketing and Management Accounting

Istanbul University
MA course in Business Administration

UNWTO
Destination Management on a Cultural Route

Languages:
English (native)
Turkish
French

Published:
Books (English/Turkish):
The Lycian Way
St Paul Trail
The Kaçkar
Evlıya Çelebi Way
Various maps smartphone apps/website for www.cultureroutesinturkey.com
www.trekkinginturkey.com
Lycian Way app (with Antalya Valiliği)

Interests and abilities:

Ancient road systems: have traced various historical road networks mainly from Roman and pre-Roman eras, and registered them as cultural heritage.
Mapping: knowledge of Open Street Map, QGIS, and cloud-based navigation apps
History: detailed knowledge of Lycian and Turkish historical geography
Media: photographer, author, editor, book designer (Adobe photoshop, indesign, Affinity), publisher; articles: De Volkskrand, Sunday Times, etc. films: DW and CNN.
Environment: amateur birdwatcher and botanist; environmental and climate change effects.
Trekking holiday market: detailed knowledge of agencies, holiday planning and marketing, etc.

Activities since 1999:

Founder/Chairperson of the Culture Routes Society, which manages the promotion of long-distance walking routes in Turkey (2012 on)
Independent designer/maker of long-distance walking routes and guide book designer/author/publisher (1999 on)
Consultant on cultural routes projects for regional development and other agencies, including DAP (Eastern Turkey development agency), UNDP, TEMA, Doğa Derneği (Turkish Nature Society))
EU Project preparation /successful application: Applications for UN sustainable tourism fund, Regional development agency funds, EU social development fund, (2), ESC solidarity (2), EU Common Culture and Heritage (with MitÖst), Erasmus sports, COSME.
Guest lecturer on MA course on Cultural Route Management – Bilim Uni. Antalya; organiser and instructor on courses for accommodation owners on cultural routes in SW and NE Turkey.
Funded and managed restoration (with Erasmus volunteers) of a public building as a cultural centre in the village of Sidyma on the Lycian Way