

RULES (2024)

- - -

-TL;DR VERSION-

I will NOT draw: characters under 18 in adult situations, bigoted or phobic content or kinks, material designed to harm or distress another party, fringe or veiled versions of the above such as jailbait or fantasy racism.

-What I will draw: Literally everything else. "Will you draw (x fetish?)" YES.

-What I will draw: Literally everything else. "Will you draw (x species?)" YES.

Please stop asking this question, it is answered here and this isn't even a single page long.

-Don't be a dick

-Be 18+

-Don't block or dodge the mods

-ASK to critique anything and get consent before you do

-No posting your own content or adverts unless you ask and get consent

-No nonconsent "jokes" or the like.

→ 0 tolerance policy. ←

-No begging/whining about art or finances

-No venting/dumping

Unless you ask and get consent to do so.

- - -

Expanded Rules

Rule 1:

When in doubt, get confirmation or consent BEFORE you do or say something.

Don't know a character's pronouns, species, kinks? Ask.

Don't know where to post or ask questions? Ask.

Don't know how to get a freebie or claim one? Ask.

In all things, if you are unsure-communicate clearly and in good faith.

Rule 2:

Be considerate of others and the artist. This means playing nice with those present AND not dragging in the carcass of drama from elsewhere. Avoid topics of politics, religion, and other such things that are very polarizing, distressing, or negative. This is general advice, not a hard rule.

If you are asked to change the subject, do it. That IS a hard rule. There's a place for all things, this is not the place for everything. The flow of conversation will change, but should not be directed into places that aren't relevant and do require more nuance and critical discussion than an online adult furry artist's stream or page can really provide.

Rule 3:

Consent, Consent, Consent.

Not only is there adult material, there is material some people may find disturbing or upsetting. Everything will be clearly labeled. If you at any time find yourself uncomfortable it is your duty to curate your own experience and leave. On the flip side of this there is a 0 tolerance policy for purity police and any shaming or antagonizing of the artist, customers or guests over their personal taste will incur an immediate kick and possible ban.

Rule 4:

Gifts.

The artist does not now or ever make 'surprises' or 'gifts' for second or third parties. In order to provide informed consent and the best end product possible; all works are direct between artist and buyer, with all involved parties giving not only informed consent but also feedback on the relevant piece directly.

Gifts and trades are exclusively person to person works, and may never be used as 'presents' for any other person. Violation of this may incur a full service ban.

Similarly, puppet accounts or any masking to get around the stated rules and limitations or the rules of the relevant hosting website are a serious offense and can result in a ban for all relevant parties and potentially a blacklist.

Rule 5:

Contact.

Do not bypass moderation by whisper, note, or other website if there is an ongoing stream to request work, jump the que, post distracting material, or otherwise detract from ongoing work. As all art is direct, each person gets time and attention in turn.

Violations of this social rule can incur repercussions if repeatedly violated.

- - -