

SRS Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes how Balaji Studio (referred to in this Privacy Policy as “Company,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) and the developer of the associated mobile games available for download in the Google Play Store/App Store and other third party app store, or pre-installed on third party devices, collects information when you play the Game (separately and collectively as the “Service”). At SRS data protection and confidentiality is a high priority.

This Privacy Policy explains how personal information about you is collected, shared and used by SRS and how you can exercise your privacy rights. This Privacy Policy applies to personal information that we collect when you use our mobile game applications, forums, websites and other online products and services (collectively, the “Services”) or when you otherwise interact with us.

This Privacy Policy governs all our Services.

We may amend and/or update this Privacy Policy from time to time by posting a new version in response to changing legal, technical or business reasons and developments. If we make material changes, we will notify you by revising the date at the top of the notice and, depending on the specific amendments, we may provide you with additional notice. We encourage you to review the Privacy Policy whenever you access our Services to stay informed about our information practices and the ways you can help protect your privacy. Your continued use of the Services shall mean your acceptance of the changes to this Privacy Policy.

Information we collect

1. Information Collected through the Service

Information Automatically Collected Through the Service.

We automatically collect information about you when you use the Service.

If you access the Service through a mobile device, we may be able to identify the general location of your mobile device. We will collect information including, but not limited to: your mobile device’s brand, model, operating system, resolution, screen size, system version, Bluetooth settings, internet connection, RAM, history, the apps you have installed, the apps you have running in the background, mobile device’s Android Advertising ID, along with your account activation time, content displayed to you and whether you clicked on it, advertisements displayed to you and whether you clicked on them, URLs you have visited, notifications that have appeared on your mobile device, your IP address, your mobile country code, and your identity. We will also request access to your photos, media and files, your device's camera and microphone, your Wi-Fi connection information and your device ID and call information.

You may be able to limit the amount of information collected from your device (computer, phone, or tablet) with us by adjusting your mobile device's settings. For instructions on changing the relevant settings, please review the opt out instructions in your Advertising Choices.

Information Collected by Third Parties through Third Party Links and Content.

The Service may include links to other websites and other content from third party businesses. We do not have access to or control over the technology that these third parties may use. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties or the content on any third party website. You are encouraged to review the privacy policies of the different websites you visit and of the advertisers whose ads you may choose to click while on our Service.

SR Studio does not share your personal data with third parties without your prior consent in the countries where collecting users' consent may be required by applicable laws and regulations.

When you consent to the collection of data for advertising and analytics purposes, we may share the data to ad partners which allow us to monetize the ad inventory of our apps and provide users with free products and services.

Those partners usually collect data via their own tools (Software Development Kits or "SDK"). You will find a list of our partners implementing advertising SDKs through our applications and the privacy policies of their services that describe their practices and allow you to exercise your rights directly toward them hereafter:

2. How We Use the Information We Collect

We may use the information we collect to provide and improve our game, to respond to your inquiries and requests, to send you promotional messages and other information about our game, and to comply with our legal obligations.

3. How We Share Your Information with Third Parties

We may share your information with third party service providers, such as hosting and analytics companies, to help us operate our game and improve our services. We may also share your information with our marketing partners to provide you with promotional messages and other information about our game.

4. Advertising

We may use third party advertising networks and tracking technologies to serve ads on our game and to collect information about your browsing behaviour. We aim to serve you ads that reflect your interest. However, we understand that some consumers do not wish to receive ads that are Interest-based and based on their browsing history. The Company and third party businesses may use the information collected through the Service using cookies, web beacons, and other similar technologies to help manage online advertising programs. This information may enable us, as well as third-party advertising services and other third-party businesses, to track the actions of users online over time and across different web sites or platforms to measure statistics relating to marketing efforts, and to deliver electronic advertisements that may be more relevant to individual consumers.

5. Your Controls and Choices

You may limit advertising tracking by changing the settings on your mobile device. On Apple devices you can opt out by choosing the “limit ad tracking” option in the privacy settings. On Android devices you can opt out by choosing the “Opt out of interest based ads” setting. Changing these settings will impact your ability to view Rewarded Ads.

6. Children’s Privacy

Children under the age of 13 are not allowed to use the SR Studio’s Games. Our game is not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under the age of 13. If we become aware that we have collected personal information from a child under the age of 13, we will take reasonable steps to delete the information as soon as possible.

7. Changes to this Privacy Policy

From time to time, we may change this privacy policy to accommodate new technologies, industry practices, regulatory requirements, or for other purposes. If we make any material changes to this privacy policy, we will post the updated privacy policy here and notify our users. Please check this page frequently to see any updates or changes to this privacy policy.
