

Evaluation

Essential Question: Why did this Crusade begin? What were the effects of this Crusade on Europe? What were the effects of this Crusade on Middle Eastern countries that were involved?

Crusade Number: _____

Crusades Gallery Walk Competencies addressed: Content, Evidence, Communication	Exemplary 4	Accomplished 3	Developing 2	Below Standards 1	Score
Exhibits (Content)	Exhibits clearly answer all the essential questions. The analysis is correct and corresponds to the pieces of art being displayed. Amount of art pieces and descriptions of pieces abundantly answer questions.	Exhibits answer all the essential questions, but may leave the viewer wondering about a few items. The analysis corresponds to the pieces of art being displayed. Amount of art pieces and descriptions of pieces clearly answer questions.	Exhibits answer one or two of the essential questions, but may leave the viewer wondering about many items. The analysis corresponds to some of the pieces of art being displayed. Amount of art pieces and descriptions of pieces answer some of the questions.	There is no clear plan for organization of information. The art pieces chosen do not correspond to the time period being explained. Many art pieces are missing and/or explanations are inadequate to answer essential questions.
Historical explanations (Evidence)	Historical explanation for each piece is included and tied back to each art piece correctly.	Historical background for all but one art piece is included or the historical background is included but not fully explained and tied back to the art pieces correctly.	Historical background for only some of the pieces is included or is included for all pieces but not tied back to the art pieces at all.	No historical background is included.
Presentation (Communication)	Presenter is knowledgeable about content. Speaks clearly and refers to exhibits. Can answer questions about exhibits without referring to notes.	Presenter is mostly knowledgeable about content. Answers questions by referring to exhibits and notes some of the time.	Presenter is knowledgeable about some content. Answers questions by referring to exhibits and notes most of the time.	Presenter is not knowledgeable of content. Can only answer questions by reading from exhibits and notes.	