

THIS IS SENT BY LANGUAGES FOR ALL

Letter to parents of Languages For All students

Dear parent/carer,

I am writing from Languages For All to invite your child to a visit to Europe House, Westminster, 32 Smith Square, London SW1P 3EU on Friday 4th July.

This is the final trip of the year by Languages For All for your child. It is a great opportunity to visit the office of the European Parliament in London and learn about European Democracy.

If you have any questions, please contact michael.slavinsky@languagesforall.org

Please give permission for your child to attend the trip on Friday 4th July by signing the trip below:

Parent/Carer Trip Approval - Click here.

We expect your child to make their

About the trip

See the trip schedule here.

All Year 12 modern language students on our programme will visit Google to:

- Find out about the role of languages in tech careers
- Meet people who studied languages and use them in the world of work
- Discuss the role of technology in language learning
- Do Career Networking

About the Global Languages Ambassador Award and Languages For All

- We believe that knowing languages is a leadership skill.
- Languages teach communication skills and intercultural understanding, and prepare young people for the global workplace.
- If you are a 16 year old who has chosen to dedicate yourself to language learning, our Global Languages Ambassador Award recognises the challenge you have set for yourself, and will support you to success in your studies, and your career.
- Read more about the Award here:
<https://www.languagesforall.org/home/students-parents>

Michael Slavinsky

--

M. Jirektor, Languages for All

A programme of The Reach Foundation www.languagesforall.org