

As one of the projects for 2025-26, KalaSanman has approved a project presented by Parag Kanvinde. We plan to honor the birth centennial of visionary Bengali playwright Badal Sircar in his 2-act play “Pagla Ghoda” in Hindi.

Ghoda” in Hindi.

Pagla Ghoda is a classic storyline which depicts the treatment of women in a male dominated society. There have been translations and many languages and renditions in many platforms, including a film by the great Satyadev Dube.

KalaSanman is inviting any and all community members who are enthusiasts of performing arts and who wish to participate in our next performance to send us their desires by emailing to BOD@KalaSanman.org. You could be an actor/actress, or have any other talent on or behind the stage. Auditions will begin by May 15, 2025 and cast for the next project(s) will be finalized as soon as possible by the first week of June 2025. Anyone participating in this project must pay a participation fee of $15 as required by the Board of Directors to perform. We will need at least 1 actress and 4 actors for the play.

Please consider these expectations before you decide to participate as an actor. For backstage artists, the requirements will vary based on the project needs:

1. Reading of the script with the Director at least once a month until the end of July 2025.
2. In-person weekly rehearsals begin by August 2025, one weekend day, 4 hrs each. Show expected to be ready to perform by November 30, 2025.
3. Actual performance expected to be up to 3 shows on one weekend, live on stage..
4. Currently, the intended date of Showtime is sometime around mid-December 2025 to February 2026, which will be solidified as the project proceeds.
5. Be prepared for performing out of town until the end of December 2026, if invited.
