

CLEAN SIMPLE EATS

[SUBJECT] Cool Down & Power Up with these New Electrolytes! 🌞🍋💚

Hey XXX,

The viral TT brand - Clean Simple Eats recently launched their newest Hydration Mix flavor - Lemon Lime, making it THE flavor this summer! Since you write about XXX, I figured you'd want to be among the first to try this refreshing new mix.

As you know, with summer activities heating up, it's important to stay hydrated now more than ever. Quenching thirst and enhancing recovery, this delicious citric twist on a long-time CSE favorite does just that and more!

Packed with CSE's Advanced Hydration Formula, this product is armed with natural electrolytes, organic coconut water powder, and branched-chain amino acids (BCAAs), curbing the fatigue and muscle cramps we all dread. Plus, as a non-GMO and non-artificial ingredients product, hydration doesn't get any healthier than this!

Bonus - This delicious mix comes in an 11.6 oz package as well as single servings, perfect for on-the-go hydration.

Let me know if you have any stories coming up that would be a good fit for this new product. I'm happy to send some samples so you can experience the CSE Hydration Mixes that have everyone ready to take on the summer fun and sun!

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Stay hydrated,
Sophie

P.S. - If you're interested in an energy boost for the summer, Clean Simple Eats also introduced a new Lemon Lime Energy Mix. I'm happy to send samples of both of these new and viral products.
