

FNaTI's Delusional Degenerate

I'm making this doc because I'm tired of this burden of a human being going after my friends and me.

This is basically a mix of the first post, the second post and the third post with some changes.

Who is Green Anomaly?

Green anomaly, formally known as nbfx83/Nerdy Birdy/Pepperoni Team , is a youtuber and a ""game developer"" from Great Britain. On his youtube channel, he uploads the most mind-numbing videos known to mankind and on his Gamejolt page, he spreads misinformation and uploads edits of models.

I advise all of you to NOT check his youtube channel, unless you love being brain fucked by random images and loud sounds.

Structure of the document

I had a hard time writing this because of how much evidence and other shit I have to cover. So the document goes like this

1. People who were affected by green's actions in one way or another (in a random order)
2. Green's hypocrisy, lies and etc
3. Changes to the 1st and 2nd posts about Green

Zer0/Crackhead Mickey

Zer0 is a modeler and an animator, developer of several fnati fan games: Twisted Dreams and Nightmare Before Insanity.

Green went after him because he is a friend of mine and a good modeler. This will be mentioned often as he LOVES going after my friends and trying to convince them to block me by spreading misinformation without proof.

Under one of Zer0's vent posts, Green decided it'd be a great idea to mention Twister Dreams or bring me up because i'm such a horrible human being for exposing a victim who for sure did nothing wrong.

Screenshots incase he decides to quickly delete these comments

Hey I wanted to tell you that the guy who requested you to make the model that Willy's pointing at in "gyatt.blend" tried to accuse me of stealing models, not giving credit, and he even tried to say that I only put the credit file because I was caught, and said that he "can't find it" even though according to my friend he knew it was there on day 1, and he gave a screenshot too.

Also not to mention the time when he drew Football Night in America (the acronym) out of one of ONWSM's characters, Sinister Mouse, and made XanderCat and others veru angry. So, TBH, you really shouldn't support this guy if you are already.

Last modified on May 8, 2024

He kept stalking ZerO for a while now, even following him on Deviantart, but stopped because ZerO told him to fuck off.

CrAckhead Mickey 08/06/2024 21:10

Ok

And no green hasn't bothered me

He finally left me alone

For now I think

Drowned_In_Sorrow 08/06/2024 21:53

Good

How bad was the stalking

CrAckhead Mickey 08/06/2024 22:02

He kept commenting and liking a bunch of stuff I posted

Like he wouldn't leave me alone for a while

CrAckhead Mickey 08/06/2024 22:09

Btw I get rllly fucking annoyed when green yaps at me

He keeps yapping that he doesn't like u

Like I don't give a fuck green

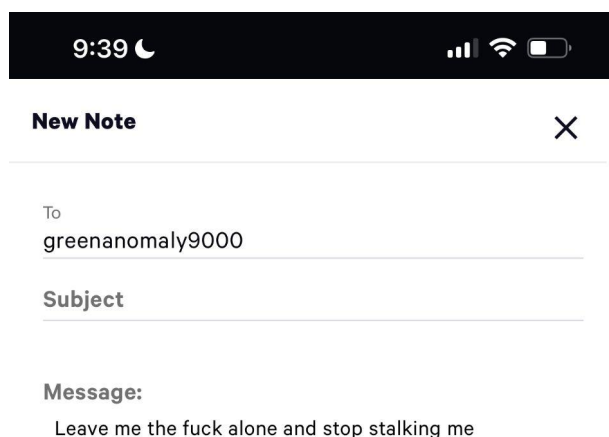

Just some screenshots of my conversation with Zer0 about Green, where you can see him saying that Green was in fact stalking him.

Crackhead Mickey/Zer0's story about Green Anomaly

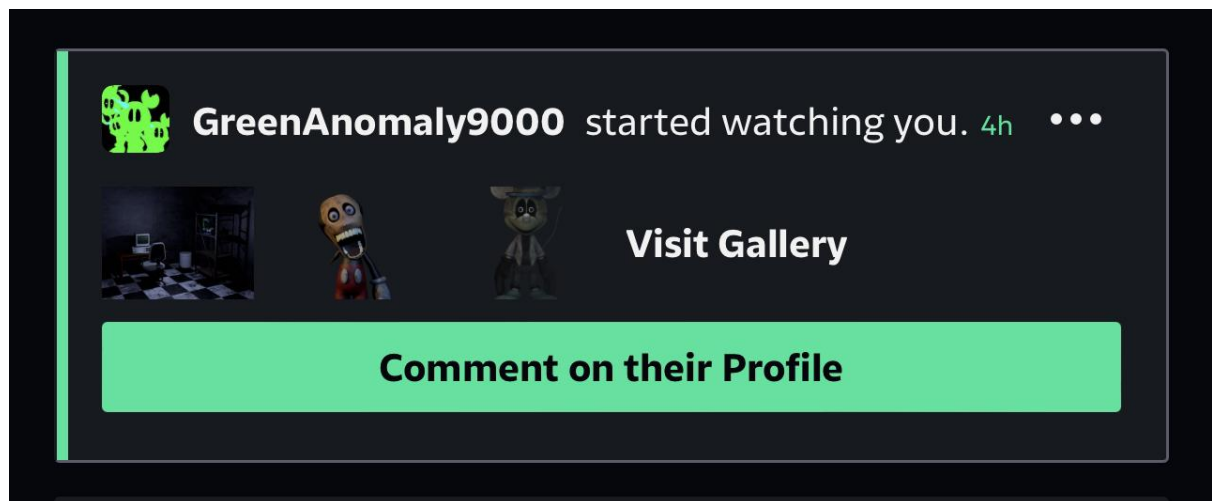

Yellow guys CrAckhead Mickey here! (Aka Zer0 the Scene Kid on gamejolt) This page is gonna be me yapping about my experience aka my side of the story about Green. I was making models like always but i was only doing it because i couldn't stop tearing up because of remembering the passing of my older friend (Pixel) who committed suicide on December 22, 2023. A unforgetting day for me, Pixel was like an older brother to me and to say goodbye to someone that close hurts like a gunshot, it makes me break down and remember the days we texted on discord. Pixel was my friend, a older brother to me, I supported him since he came out as trans before it happened. he would help me during bad days like being made fun of for "liking" Mickey mouse, i would get bullied in non fnati server's for being a fnati fan. But Pixel would defend me, ik i'm talking about him but i'm just letting out everything rn since at the time i'm typing this i'm not well. After finishing the model, i laid in bed crying about

Pixel, i posted a vent post to the dev log of The Twisted Dreams explaining why I wasn't feeling well (This was the time when the whole week was just full of toxic shit happening in my family) i check back and i read the comment that Green posted on the post, i knew what was happening between Green and McDope beefing including Willow (EveryoneOrtensia) and thought he wouldn't go after me, but me being friends with McDope made this retard go after me. I read the comment and my heart sank... I was extremely mad that this retard mentioned TTD (The Twisted Dreams) ON A VENT POST ABOUT WHY I WAS PROBABLY GOING TO LEAVE THE FNATI FANDOM. After this it made me feel worse, Pixel WOULD NOT be happy about Green saying this, TTD (The Twisted Dreams) wasn't even called that at the time, it was The Shades but i never told about Pixel of the game since i was busy trying to save him from committing suicide. Two days later Green starts yapping at me about hating McDope for exposing him "without proof" when I don't care you little bitch, get ya inflation lover ass out of my face. About three weeks later he came back, now following me on DeviantArt, I saw this and saw him yapping some more and liking posts, so i sent a letter to him saying "Leave me the fuck alone and stop stalking me"

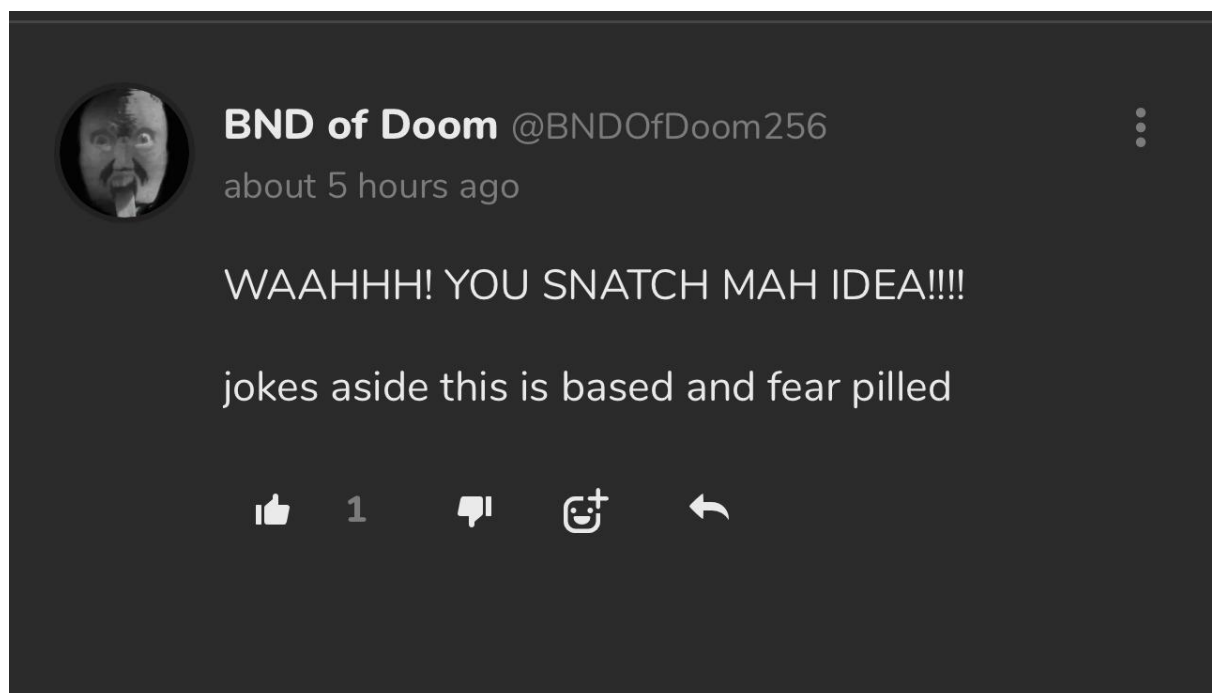

Pic of the note

A screenshot of the time he followed me on DA (DeviantArt)

A screenshot of the time he did not stop yapping at me and being annoying before hating me. At the time he changed his username and pfp

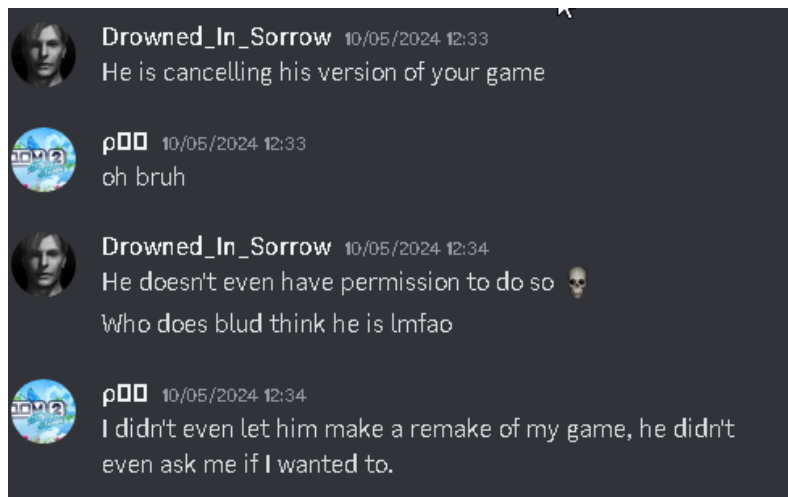

Xander/XanderCat

Xander is a youtuber and a developer of One Night With Sinister Mouse.

Green asked him to make a model for a Five Nights At Nick's Revival (no clue what that game is) and Xander did. After I found out about it, I told Xander about the things Green has done and still continues to do. Xander made 2 posts about the whole situation, but I can't find them. (I will update the document incase I find them)

Green later unblocked Xander to get some help with a model of his oc, but would block him AGAIN because of something Xander brought up (it will be mentioned later in a different category).

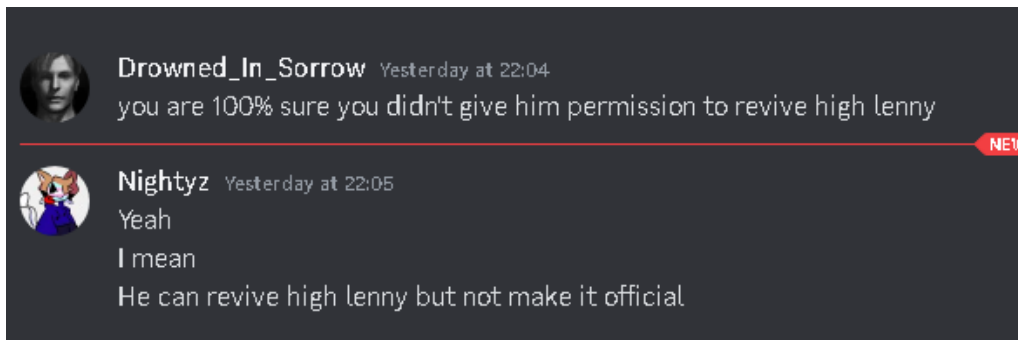

At some point, Green decided to make a "revival" of ONWSM called OWNSM:Greenified. Comparing OWNSM to Dormitabis is just PEAK DEGENERACY. Not trying to 'white knight' Xander, but what he did was long, long time ago and he did change as a person. I'm not gonna 'shoot him in the knees' because of something he severely regrets doing.

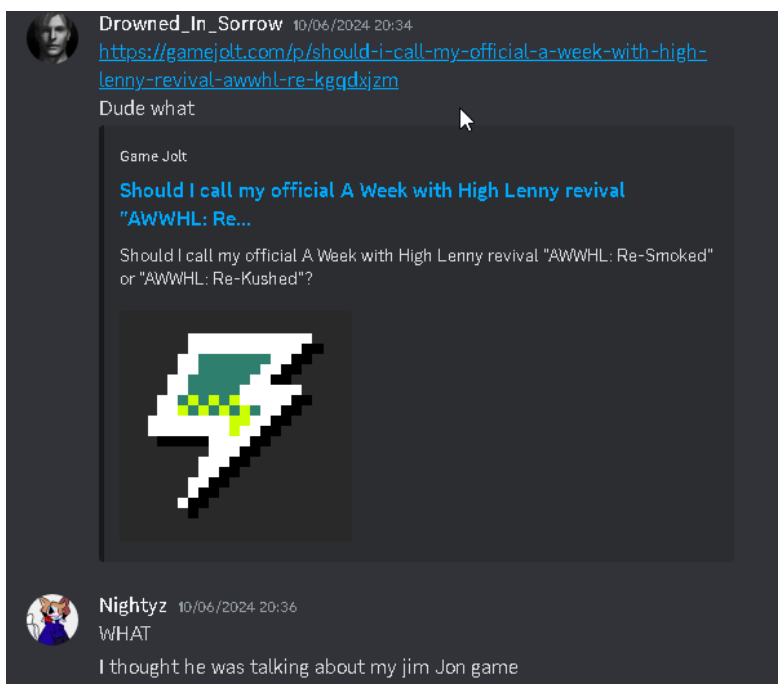

Proof of Xander not giving permission to Green.

Nightyz

Nightyz is a modeler and a developer of A Week With High Lenny. Green tried to make an official revival of her game without permission.

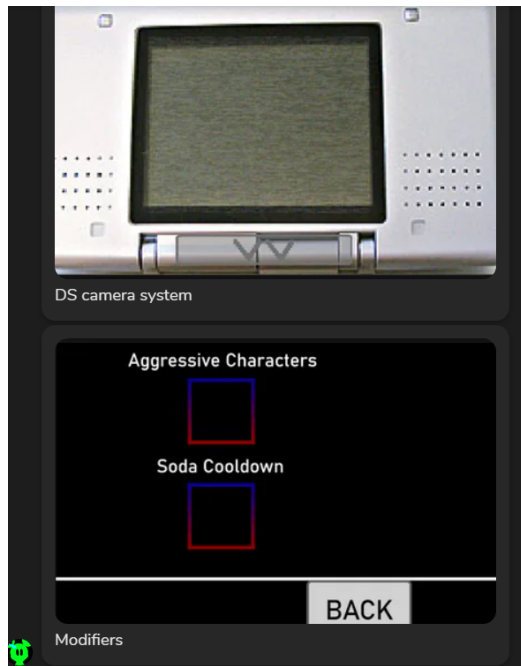

Not to mention, when he made that poll, he didn't ask Nightyz if he could make an official revival, only after Nightyz commented he asked her

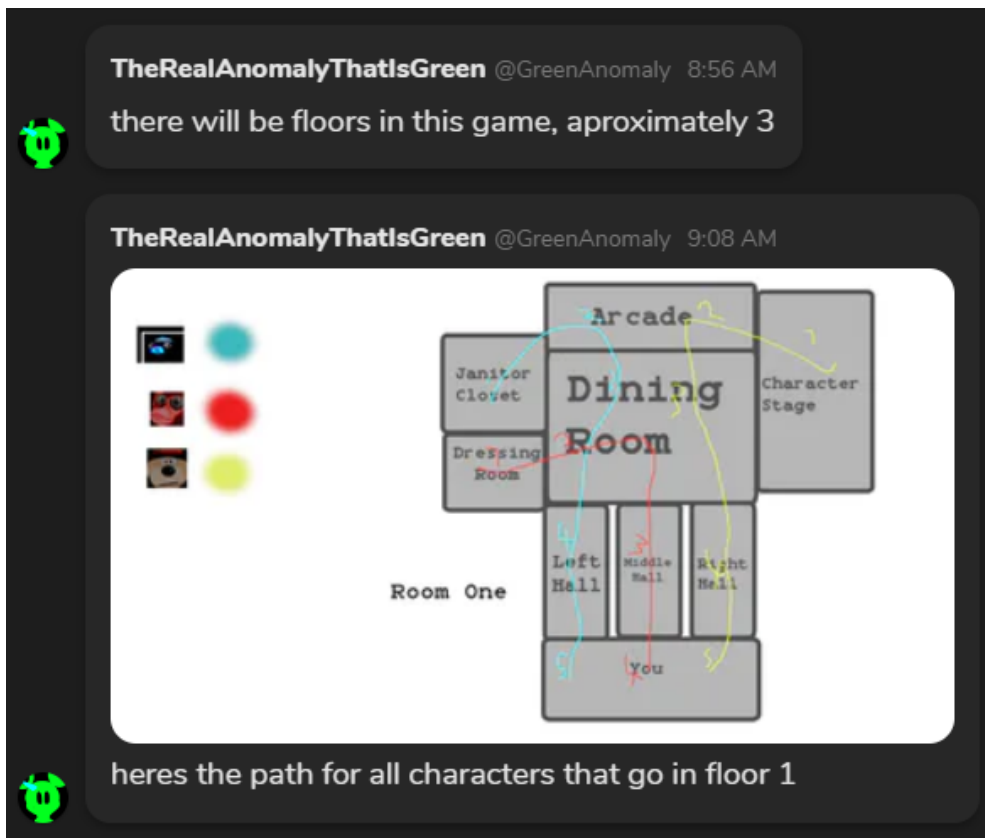

Blue Anomaly/Blue_629

Blue Anomaly, also known as Hardcore Mickaline Simp 69(i'm not sorry), is a voice actor, modeler and a developer of several fnaf fan games: JOLLY Tapes and Treasure Island:Underground.

Green tried to make Blue code 99% of "Idiotic Custom Night".

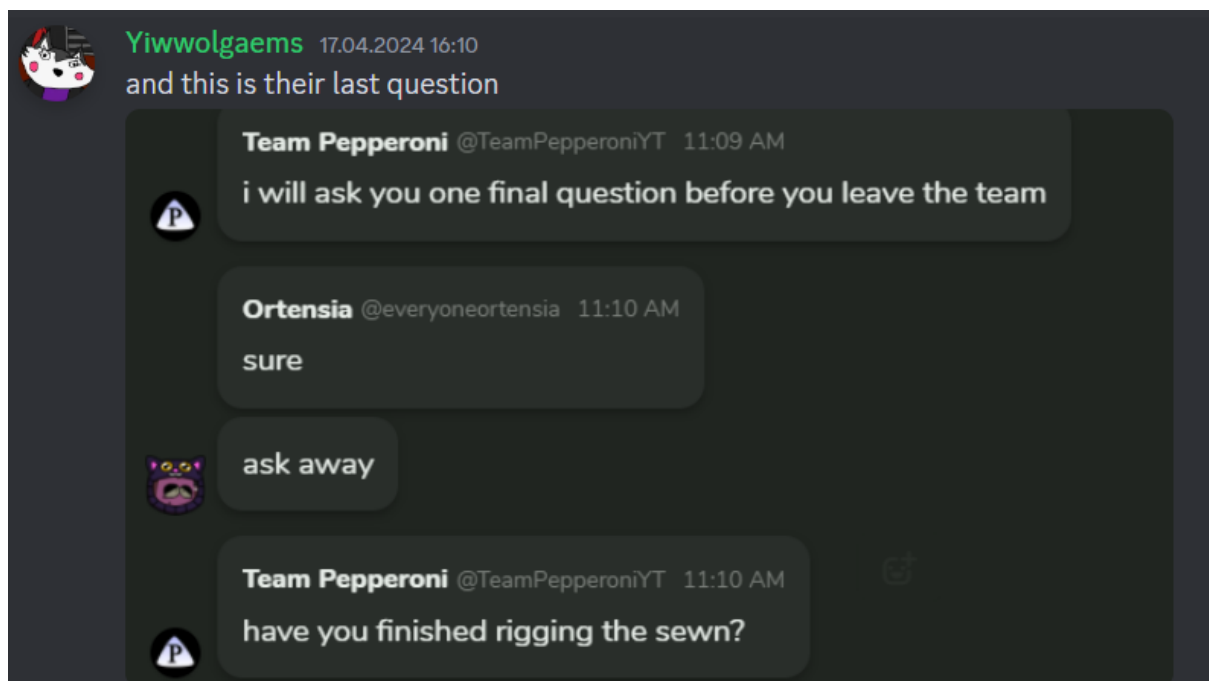

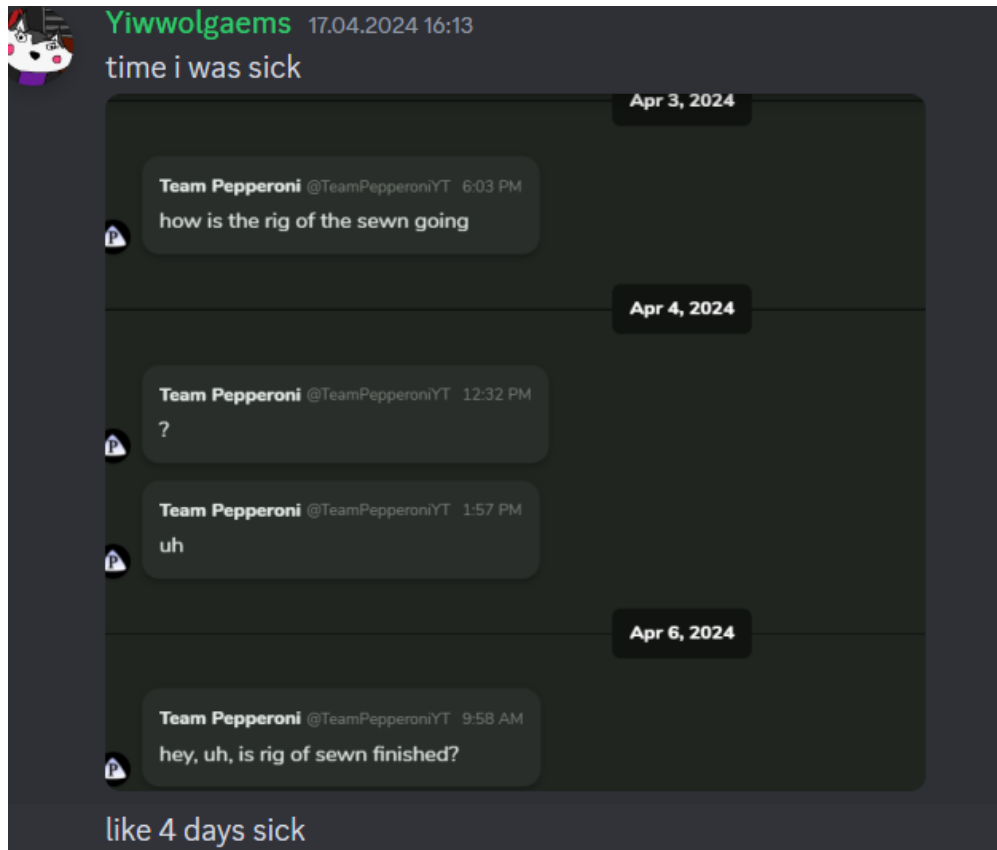

He didn't even give blue the project file for the game.
All of this comes from this post's pinned comments.

EveryoneOrtensia/Willow

Willow is a modeler and an owner of Discovery Island Files: L'enfer Oublié and VERSION 03.

Everything from the first exposed posts about Green still stands and nothing new happened, so I'm just gonna copy and paste the text from them with some minor changes.

Green would constantly ask EveryoneOrtensia, who was sick at that time, about progress on a rig for his game. Even when Willow was leaving the team, he still had the audacity to ask Willow if the rig was finished.

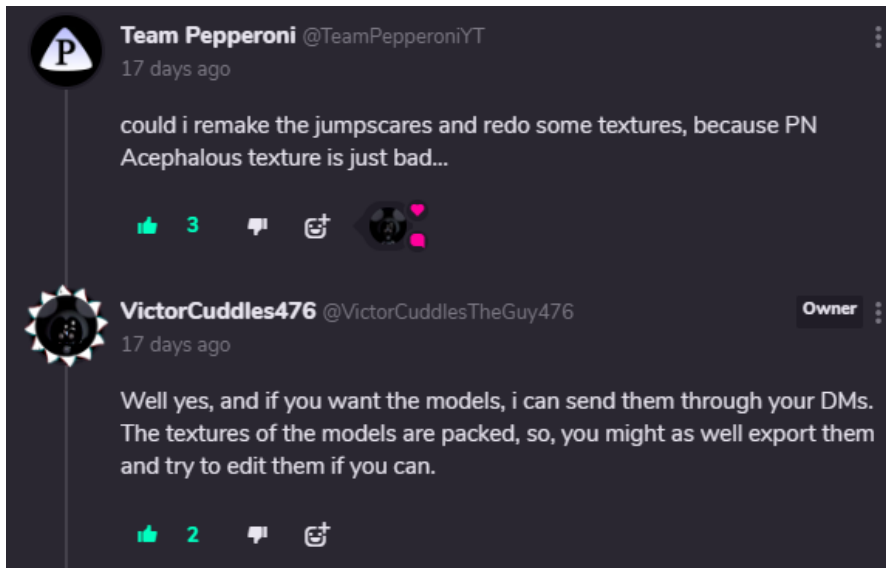

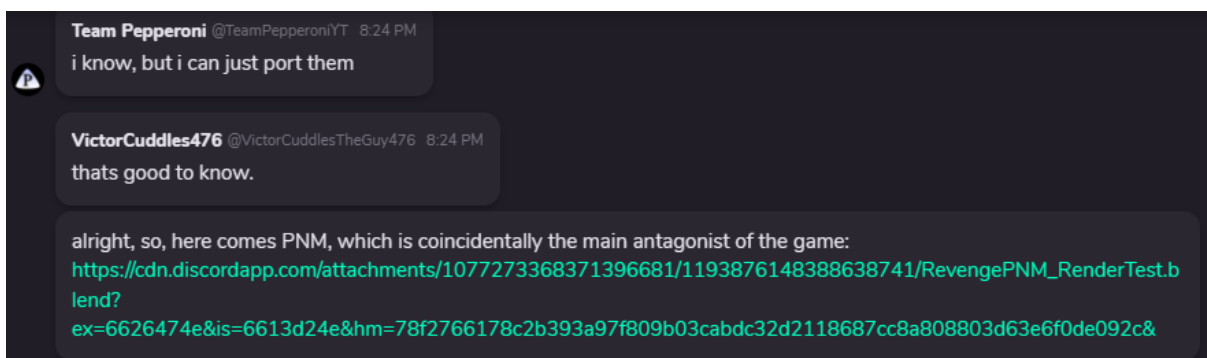

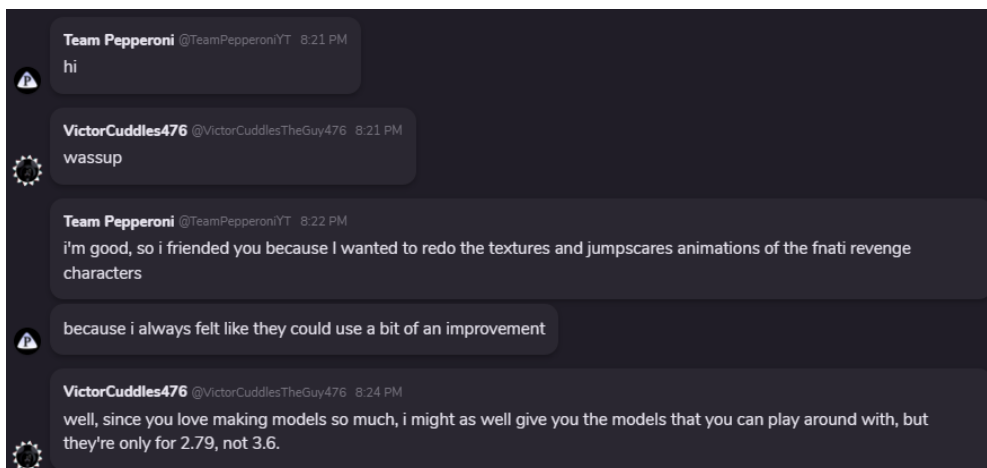

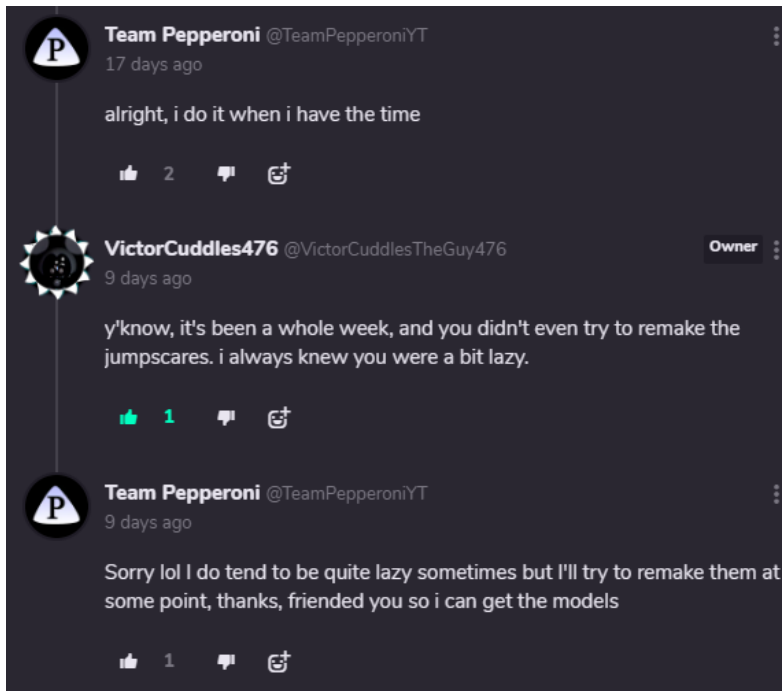

Really shows how much this guy cares for his team members.

Victor/VictorCuddles476

Victor is a youtuber and a developer of: FNaTI:The Revenge Remake, Mickey's Paradise\(On Hold\) and other games.

Green asked Victor if he could remake the revenge's jumpscare and acephalous textures because they were "bad". For that he needed models and he got them. Needless to say, he only ended up retexturing pn and only God knows what happened to the rest

Also, if you want the jumpscare sounds, here they are, so, here's the one for PNM:

Green's "Apology" posts

The only reason why they exist is because of my posts, you can check the dates for yourself. He doesn't care about what he has done and continues to do, he only cares about being caught.

Here's an example of that.

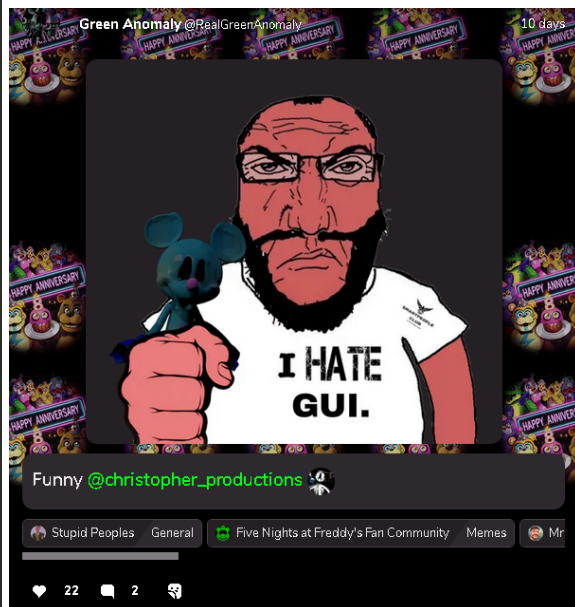

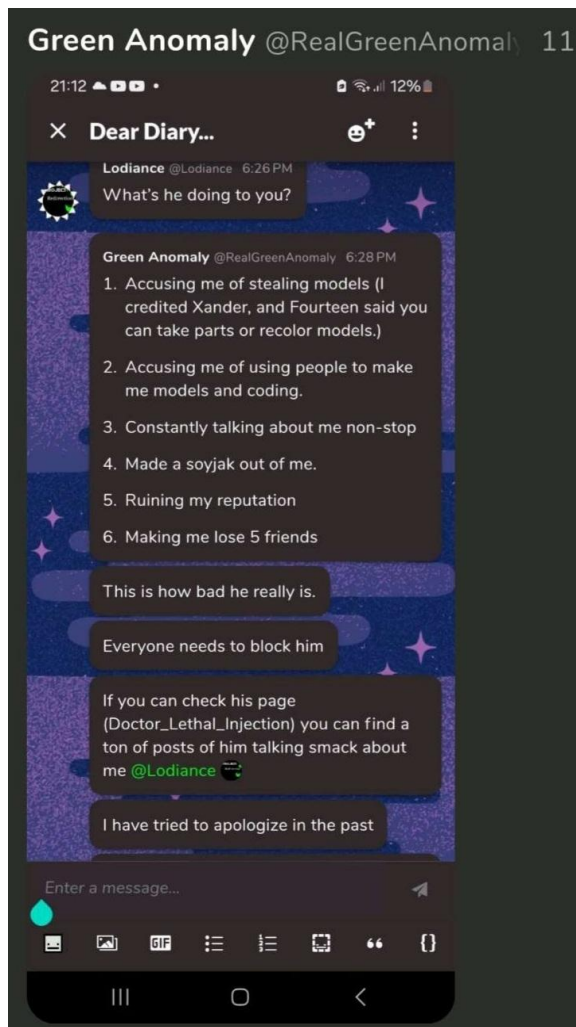

Not to mention, he only keeps apologizing to Willow and sometimes Victor and Xander. He never apologized to Zer0 for stalking or Blue for making him code 99% of his game.

If it wasn't already obvious, green only cares about people who can code. Hell, I'd say he only cares about models and code considering how he treated Willow, Zer0 and Blue.

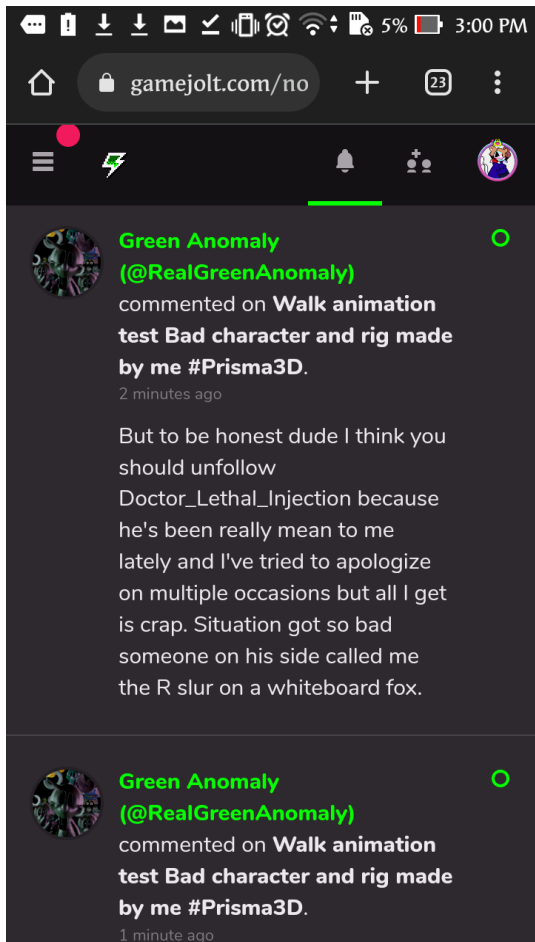

Hypocrisy

Who could've guessed that green is a hypocrite.

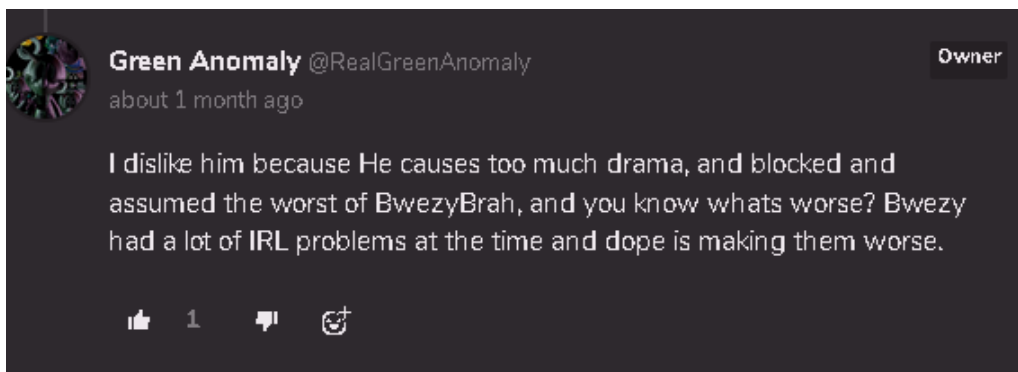

Says I'm bad for making a soyjack out of him, yet makes a soyjack out of another user.

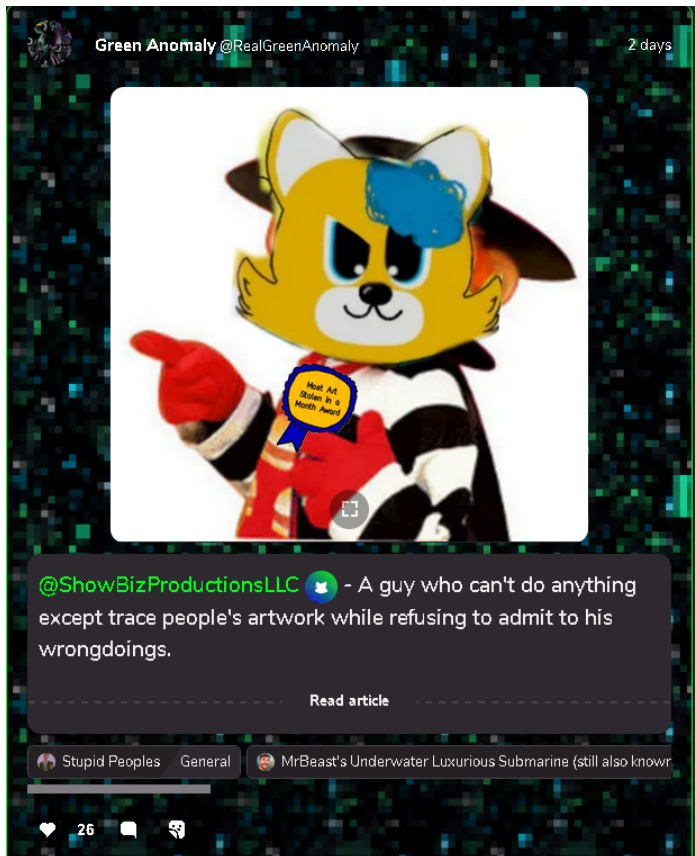

Says i constantly talk about him when he himself goes after my friends and keeps yapping about me non stop (Zer0 is an example and this)

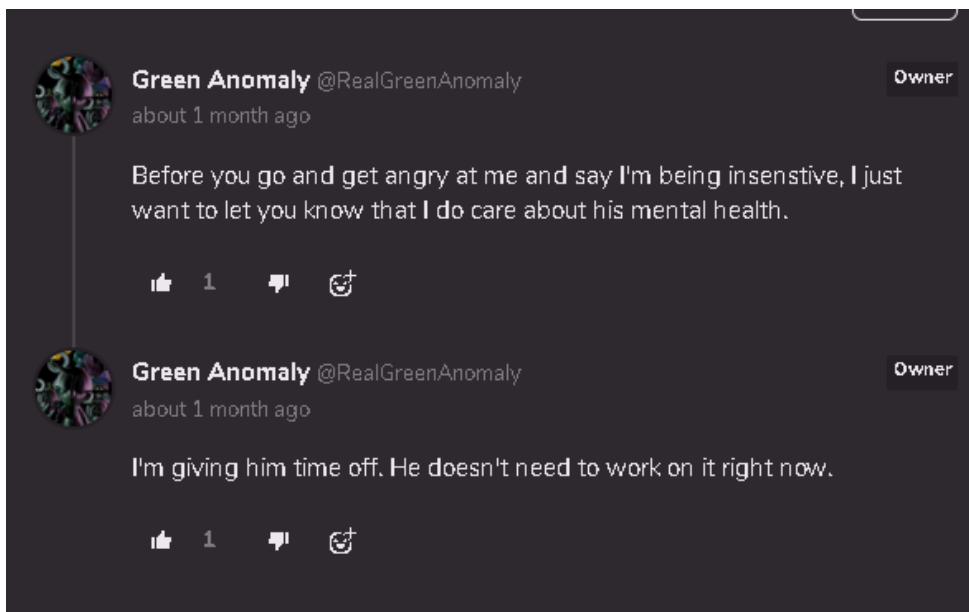

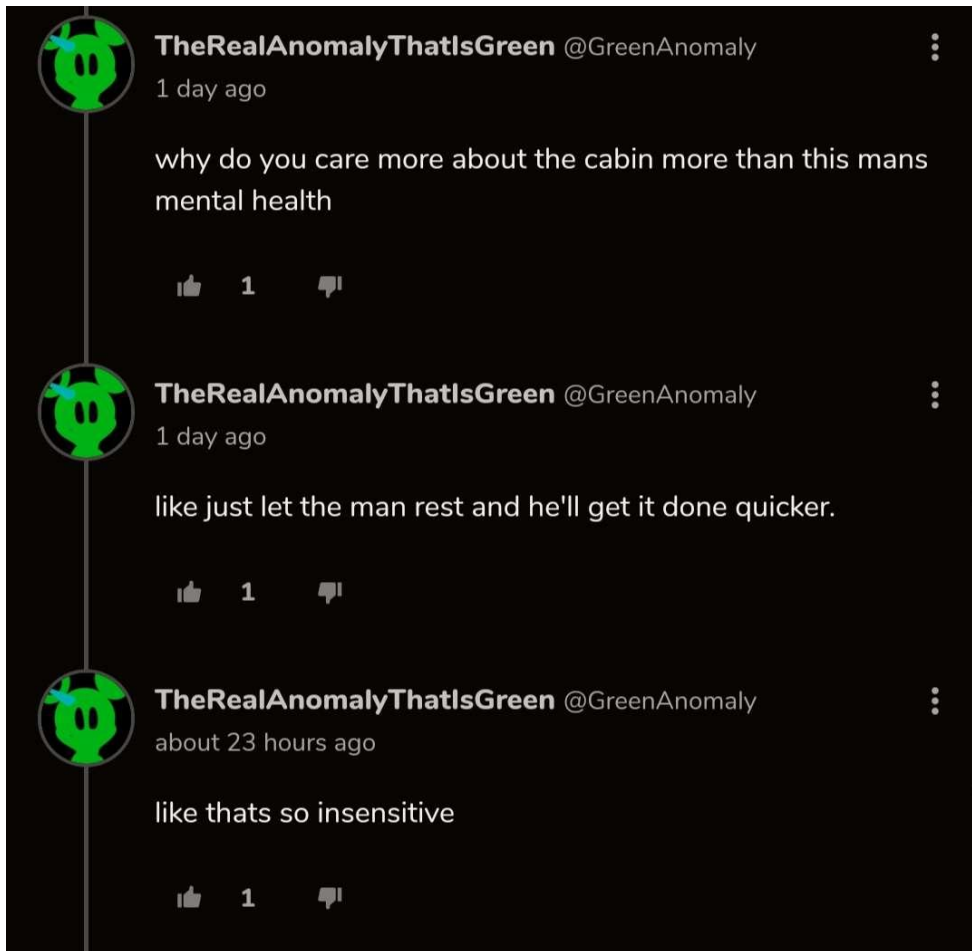

(the most recent one)

Another example of that, he is also saying that I am ruining Bwezy's life, which is obviously false...

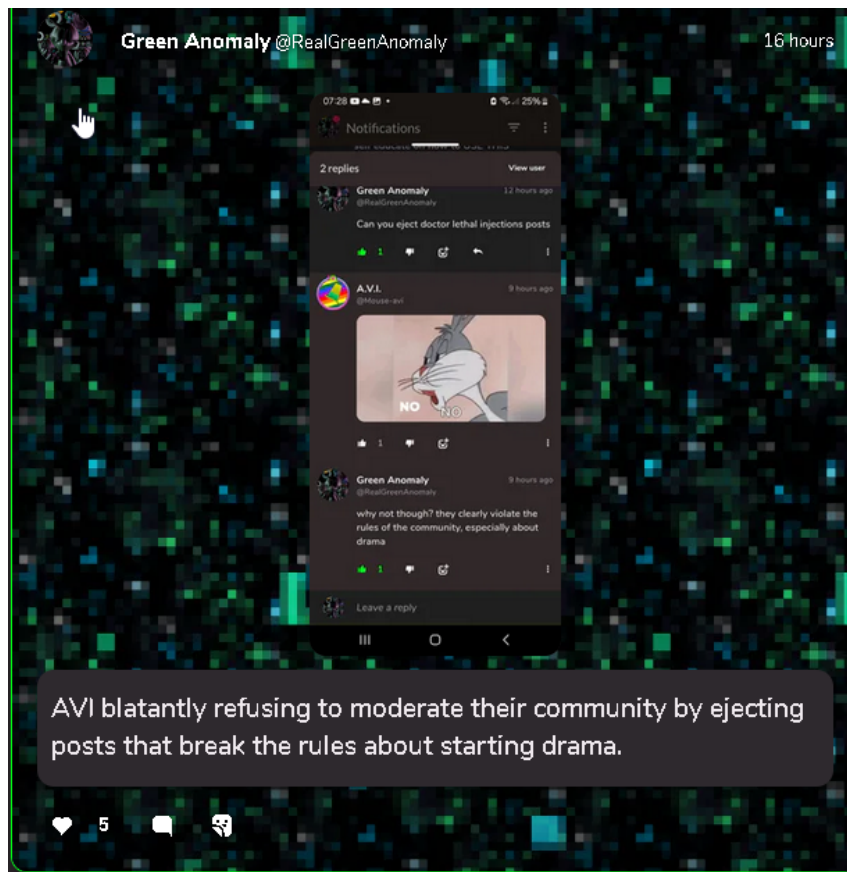

Accuses someone of not admitting to their wrongdoings when he himself does the same thing by not admitting to everything.

Do I even need to explain why this is on here?

I mind you, this was before him stalking Zer0, isn't that just ironic ?

"Green blatantly refuses to moderate his community by ejecting posts that break the rules about drama"

1. You keep bringing up drama by constantly talking about me
2. You post your responses to drama in your own community...

Green's lies

Yeah...he loves lying.

First off, you weren't harassed before the whiteboard raid, as proof, check my gamejolt page.

Do I regret raiding your whiteboard?

-No

Would I do it again?

-Yes, yes I would.

You have done nothing other than go after my friends and me FOR OVER A FUCKING MONTH AND STILL CONTINUE TO DO SO instead of improving yourself, you STILL DARE to paint yourself as a victim and me as villian. You keep lying and lying about me instead of stopping and improving as a person, but no, NO, you are so full of yourself that you think it's okay to do something like this and that you'll not face the consequences of your actions. I thought you'd stop, maybe just maybe you'd realize you're in the wrong, but you didn't because your skull is too fucking thick.

Second off, Gamejolt is for 13+ users and my profile has a warning.

The rule says "Contains any "adult" content, which could be 1) obscene, pornographic, or adult-oriented content, 2) content which contains any imagery of exposed intimate body parts, including blurred or censored versions of such imagery, 3) content that depicts, solicits, promotes, normalizes, or glorifies sexual acts, sexual solicitation or sexual violence, or 4) content that is otherwise in violation of our community standards, which may be posted on the Service and updated from time to time" and my art follows that rule. (if you find that account, please don't link it on this account)

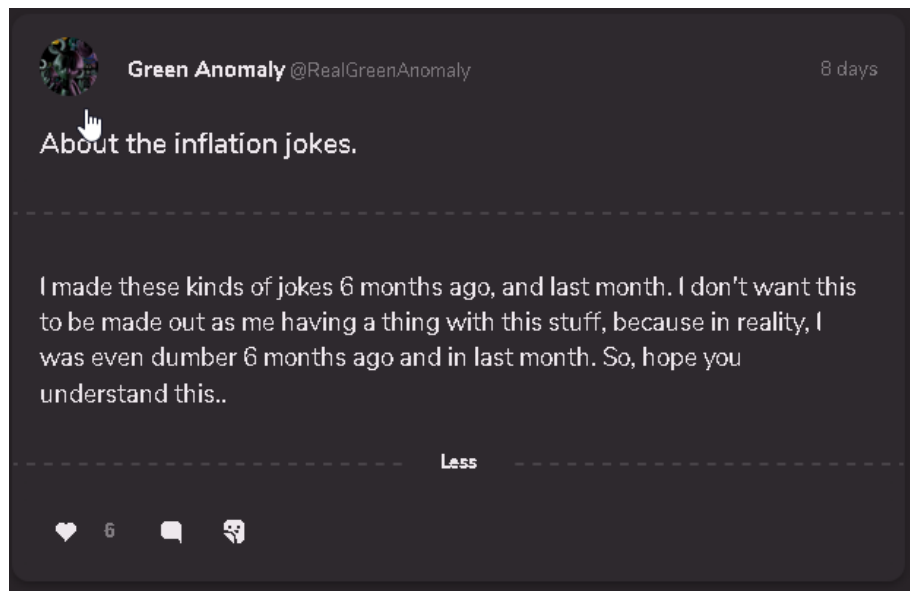

Oh, how could I forget, you accused me of something YOU do, breaking the TOS

-Gamejolt is for users who are 13 and older. Green refers to himself as a kid and revealed his face on youtube.

"In order to create an account on the Service, you need to be an adult, or your parent or guardian needs to make an account and consent to your use. No one under 13 years old may use the Service."

-Sending your fans to mass report me and attack me, lie about me and go after my friends, use team members for code/models and not caring about team members' real life problems.

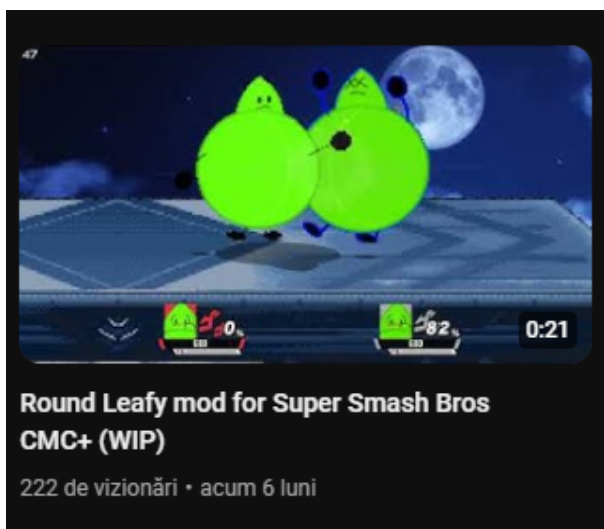

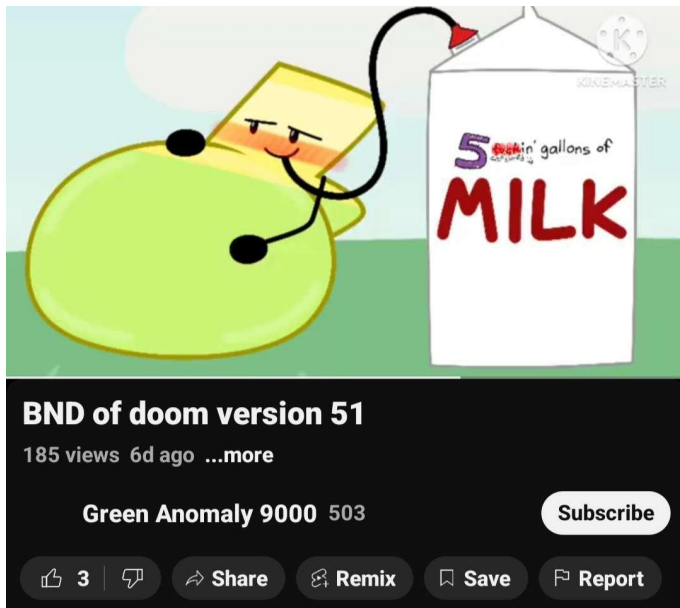

Engage in or encourage behavior that makes the Service unsafe or uncomfortable for other users. This could be encouraging vigilantism, hateful or threatening conduct, harassment, abuse, defamation, lewdness or suggestive conduct, inflammatory or profane, or racially or ethnically discriminatory, or anything else that we determine to be inappropriate or unlawful.

Another lie.

One of his most recent "bnd of doom ver 51" did have an inflation art shown. That video is about 14 days old I think, considering when I took the screenshot, the video was 6 days old and green's video where he ""explains"" why it was deleted is 8 days old. (at the time of writing this document)

This was also the thing Xander brought up in Green's group chat.

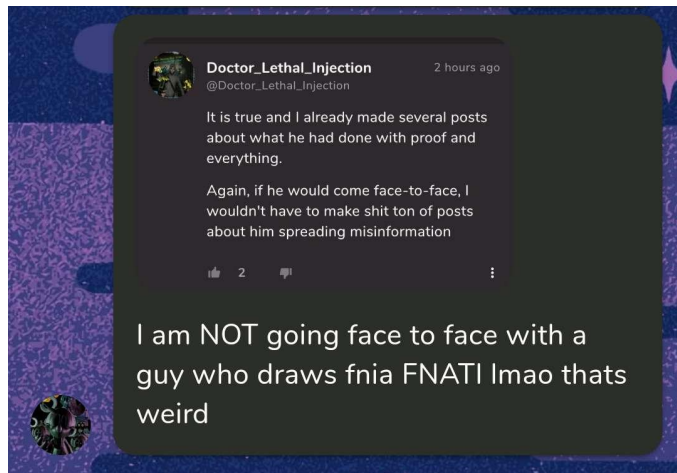

This one IS 6 months old.

Oh yeah, he calls me and other people who expose him - grown men Imfao.

There are probably more because this guy won't shut up about me.

Not to mention, he says he wants drama to stop, yet keeps making posts about it and doesn't even bother reaching out to me in private so we could maybe work something out. All he does is lie and lie and lie, as if it's somehow gonna help him.

Really funny coming from an underaged user who is into inflation art.

Mistakes in first expose posts

He didn't steal models. BUT, he only started crediting people after those posts and there's a screenshot where Willow straight up says that models used in Green's shitty pack that is almost impossible to find are stolen.

make of that what you will, I'm not sure if I can trust this guy or not.

The Cluster Fuck Of Finding The 100 Followers Model Pack.

Hello neighbor, MalwareTVCC writing here! I'm just going to explain how horrible of a cluster fuck finding this pack was and disproven greens point about how McDope knew the pack form the start. But first, some context.

Oddities model pack release's description:

-You can steal parts, edit, whatever.

2.9 fnati models port release's description.

You are NOT to repost any of them publicly without my permission, releases of edits, recolors and others are allowed though.

The very, VERY clear TXT file that credits EVERYONE for the models I used. (If you didn't get this file I suggest you use a different zip extractor or try redownloading the file in a different browser Otherwise, I don't know. It has been there since day 1.)

FourteenL: Bases and some model ports that were used for this pack nrhdndnxjx: Mortimer model
AnArt1996: Making FNATI originally
Radiance Team: FNATI itself, Red Oddities
Jakewald: Red Oddities
Malrat: FNATI 2 Original Revamp
Squeaks D' Corgeh: Dream Come True
???: Blood Mouse
KPFreddy: Base for Photo Negative Mickey and other Mickey models
Lugig5: Gears of Entorpy
EpicTagey: Lou, Inspiration for Mig
TheEighthsea: Georgiger's, Inspiration for Tastyben's
You: Downloading and getting us to 100 followers!

This image from the first green anomaly post addressing the "stealing" (and soon others) will be the delicious course of the long rabbit hole that is pure madness. I wish I was joking, but nope, it was REALLY that bad of an experience. Here's what I have to say.

MalwareTVCC Today at 4:44 PM

Two of these packs are mention, while the last one (his pack) is not even mention or have a link attached to it. Really tells you that he didn't give a fuck and expected everyone to know. The only thing I knew about at the time was that it says in the bottom of the image that it was 100 followers and that was IT, I could scroll down (which would be an cluster fuck because of how gamejolt's mobile especially PC is) I could search it up, but... it wouldn't give me any results at the time. SOOOO how did I find this then? literally using the image he sent on the comment section... yea... I'm done. (edited)

These comments came form "Zeros" GJ posts

it you are already.

after finding it, it was to the point where I questioned. "Why should I do this? when he literally owns the pack himself and could and should have put a link on it in the first place." All of that takes place before McDope knew the existence of that model pack until I was talking to him and showing him.

Anyways back to the conclusion.

In Conclusion

If you are a modeler/coder/artist, immediately block green.

If you're not, then you are safe. He won't reach out to you unless you're a modeler etc because he only cares about models, code etc.

You can listen to his side if you want, I don't give a shit. But the only thing you'll see is a wall of lies.

If you want me to add something, message me or my friends either on gamejolt or on discord.

My message to Green

You did this to yourself. If you gonna continue doing this, I'll continue sharing and updating this document because that's the only way you'll realize that you fucked up, hell, 'fucked up' is an understatement.

Have fun lying to your equally delusional and hypocritical followers, only they are gonna believe you.

Leave and never come back.
