Manuscript Submission Letter

We present the manuscript (title) for consideration for evaluation and possible publication in the National Faculty of Public Health Journal.

This is an original work; it has not been published in whole or in part in any print or electronic medium, it has not been submitted simultaneously, and it is not currently under review by another publication.

The authors below acknowledge that we accept the submission of the manuscript in its current version. We agree with the order of appearance of the authors, the complete content of the manuscript, including tables and figures, and the statements included are our sole responsibility.

Authorship was based on the four criteria: 1) substantial contribution to the conception or design of the article or to the acquisition, analysis or interpretation of data 2) participation in the design of the research work or in the critical revision of its intellectual content 3) approval of the final version of the submitted manuscript 4) ability to respond to questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work.

All data and references to previously published materials are duly identified with their respective credits and included in the references and citations highlighted as such. Where required, we have obtained the proper authorizations from the copyright holders. In the event of any litigation or claim related to intellectual property rights, we assume no liability, exonerating the National Faculty of Public Health Journal.

For the record, the authors sign:

Manuscript information

Mention whether the manuscript was derived from another work , noting the complete reference where the original and differentiated contribution to be published can be corroborated (thesis, degree work, conference, congress):

Please specify whether the project report that gave rise to the manuscript or any version of the manuscript has been deposited in any repository , including its link:

Language policy

If your manuscript is approved, to proceed with publication, the author must submit a translation of the manuscript (if the native language is Spanish). Proof of translation is preferred . Read the language policy at: <https://revistas.udea.edu.co/index.php/fnsp/politicaseditoriales>

Declaration of conflict of interest

Declare any potential conflicts of interest for each author to be declared in the article: (See <http://www.icmje.org/conflicts-of-interest/>) (If there are no conflicts of interest, note: "The authors declare that they have no conflicts of interest.")

Declaration of responsibility

Note the responsibility of the authors to declare in the article, about the views expressed and whether the authors' and funders' institutions are liable:

Declaration of availability and access to data

Mention whether the data used in the study are available in an institutional or public repository, including the access link or DOI where applicable, in order to promote transparency and reproducibility of the research.

Example :

The data used in this study are available in the institutional repository of the University of Antioquia, under the following link: <https://repositorio.udea.edu.co/handle/xxxx/xxxx>

If the data is not publicly available, it must be adequately justified:

The data generated and analyzed during this study are not publicly available due to ethical and confidentiality restrictions with the participants, or they can be requested directly from the authors.

Declaration of use of artificial intelligence

If any artificial intelligence (AI) tools were used during the writing, analysis, or editing of the manuscript, the authors must explicitly declare this, indicating the type of tool, the purpose of its use, and who assumes final responsibility for the content.

Example :

ChatGPT (OpenAI) was used to improve the English language writing process during the writing of this manuscript. The authors carefully reviewed and edited the generated content, assuming full responsibility for the final version of the text.

If you have not used AI tools, it is recommended to explicitly declare:

The authors declare that they did not use artificial intelligence tools in the preparation of this manuscript.

Acknowledgments (optional)
