

Medical Terminology

Grade Levels: 11th-12th

Prerequisites: N/A

Course Numbers: 1517MT1, 1517MT2

Credit Type: CTE or Elective

Course Description:

The course is intended for those students who are interested in pursuing a career in a medical or health related field. Other courses within this strand include Sports Medicine and Anatomy and Physiology. The course will include frequent lab work as well as assignments, quizzes, and examinations.

Student Workload:

In this elective, students learn about the technical aspects of medical language as well as various medical specialties, including dermatology, gastroenterology, urology, OB/GYN, neurology, and cardiology. Each unit features lessons in basic anatomy and physiology, pathologies, and diagnostic and therapeutic procedures. The course includes frequent lab work.