Waning Gibbous in Capricorn - All Day

Venus in Taurus (April 29, 2024, 4:32am – May 23, 2024, 1:30pm)

This transit calls us into ourselves, it asks us to put ourselves first, to meet our own needs, and to be willing to give ourselves what we can't seem to access or receive anywhere else. It is a potent reminder of the power of self-love and self-care, and how without filling our own cup first we cannot expect to be able to fill anyone else. Use this period to explore what you like, and what you need and want, and what brings you pleasure and joy.

This can show up sexually, sensually, financially, emotionally, and through self-care and self-talk. Cultivate a passionate relationship with yourself, and use that fire to ignite other aspects of your life. This is an important time to be mindful of rash or impulsive spending, as it may not be a true reflection of what you really want. Utilizing this period to go for what you want, take big action on what you're passionate about, and begin a passion project can be a fantastic use of this energy.

You may also find that finances show up more readily now especially if you are increasing your sales activity, give people an opportunity to pay you again, and again and again. Offers don't need to be as well thought out now so long as they have your interest and excitement, others will feel it from you.

Void Moon from 8:18 – 8:19 am PST

Because the Moon acts as a giant mirror, reflecting whatever it's passing through, it is determined to be void when it stops making aspects (conversations) with planets on its transit from one zodiac sign to another. Some voids can last a minute to several hours, up to a day or more.

It is ill-advised to launch or announce anything important under a void moon. Social Media posts tend to not get seen under void moons, and things that are launched under Void Moons often lack the momentum needed to carry them forward. These moons are quieter periods, often resembling a similar quality to water moons. They are great for tuning in, deepening our intuition as we will have closer contact with our inner worlds at this time.

It is best to avoid webinars, presentations, business partnerships, job interviews, and first dates during a VOC (Void of Course), Moon, as things are not what they appear during these periods.

Note: If you have already set something in motion, whether it be a launch, promotion, agreement, or other event or commitment and it falls on a Void Moon, it doesn't mean you have to cancel it, or that it will fail. It is things that are STARTED during/within a void that tend to not get the attention or the momentum needed to grow or be fully initiated.

Remember, things are not as they appear when viewed through the lens of a void, including people (especially new relationships), contracts, agreements, or offers.

Given the frequency of how often voids occur, we cannot avoid them ;), but we do need to take them into account and try to work in downtime as much as possible, or at least schedule/or automate important/mentally intensive actions out.

Because the Moon reflects whatever it is passing through when it is void, it isn't reflecting anything back to us, so these periods tend to make us feel more 'afloat', and also in more direct interaction with our own subconscious patterns, fears, emotions, and behaviors. This makes an excellent time to do some deep inner mindset work, or work behind the scenes on projects or goals (without pushing ourselves towards a deadline).

Waning Gibbous in Aquarius begins at 8:20 am PST

[Combined with Last Quarter Phase]

Mars in Aries (April 30, 2024, 8:33 am – June 8, 2024, 9:34 pm)

Acting with certainty is nice, but sometimes we don't have this luxury. Mars has entered Aries, bringing us to a period of bold action. During this time, even if you are uncertain of your actions, it may be beside the point of what life is trying to say now. Instead of worrying about the right or wrong move, it may just be time to make a move. The expression that accompanies this time would be act first, think later.

Now, life may be sending you a message of pushing forward no matter the expectations, agenda, or what the data says. As scary as this sounds, it is only here to help you, so don't be afraid. As you navigate the story of Mars in Aries, be on the lookout for messages to guide the way.

These messages may come in any shape or size, from a synchronistic encounter to a shiny penny on the street. Understanding the symbolism in your daily life will help you to deepen the mastery of your daily life.

Be on the lookout for symbols, and symbols will be on the lookout for you. With this kind of symbolic discernment guiding you, it is certain that you will be guided to the next right move. Mars is a planet that stands for action, determination, will-power, and leadership.

Under these skies, there is very little room for premeditation as we forge ahead. That said, there is certainly room for balancing energy and with this placement, it can be a lot. When we are told just to forge ahead, we fear losing our sanity, grounded-ness or sense of stability. This is why it is important to look closely at how Mars functions in our lives.

In its lower frequency, Mars is anger and aggression. If we take this frequency and mold it into its higher aspect, however, it comes to stand for leadership and agency. In the journey from anger to leadership, where do you stand? Are you doing the highest Mars possible? How is Aries informing this journey for you? Remember that during this time, we are also developing our instincts.

Given that very little is premeditated, a great deal of decision making is happening on auto-pilot for us during this time. Instead of pausing to reach for the operator's manual, we are kind of just going and maybe that is part of the right strategy. Forging ahead can be scary, but not to worry, the Universe has got your back.

FEELINGS: Impulsive, impatient, easily aggravated, wanting things to be different, internally or externally directed anger or frustration.

ACTION: Mars shows us our motivation, what is compelling us to move forward, it also rules survival skills and the things we do on automatic pilot. We will feel a great need to do things during this time, and we may be frustrated when it takes longer than we planned or if other 'tedious' things get in the way. The worst thing we can do with Mars is to overthink, it's gift is in taking immediate action, even if we don't have the whole thing planned out yet. See what it feels like to allow yourself to act without a plan.

Last Quarter in Aquarius begins at 4:27 am PST

- Let yourself express all the weirdness inside of you that attracts people into your world and makes them feel seen/understood
- Be wildly creative when it comes to mapping out your path because your business gets to be as unique and customized as you want it to be
- Tap into the evolved vision of your business and create accountability for yourself if you haven't been living up to it your ideals
- Find where societal values line up with your own ambition to know where your greatest contribution can be made in the world
- Waning Gibbous: Active energy being balanced and drawn inwards

- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan

If you're high energy/in a work mood: The last Quarter is a potent window to assess and gather our remaining reserves to complete the projects and ideas we have begun this cycle. If you didn't accomplish all you desired how can you best reshape your perspective, or modify your goals so that you can have some wins, even small ones? Sometimes the best kind of productivity (especially under an air moon) is to go for the smaller tasks that have been eating at our minds. Something that seems annoying but can meet your need for variety, and desire to 'do nothing'.

When we enter the Last Quarter under an Air Moon it is a time to step back and ask ourselves what amount of pressure are we applying. Are we forcing things to happen, are we trying too hard? Are we even aware of why we're doing the things we're doing?

This moon is all about perspective, and we don't always need to be pushing so hard in order to create great waves. Just like the Butterfly Effect, the very act of doing ANY movement, even the simplest, or sometimes easiest acts can have great ripple effects. But sometimes we are so focused on how 'far behind' we think we are, that we apply too much pressure, instead of molding our opportunities, we are crushing them; instead of allowing ourselves to be moved through momentum, source, intention, we allow our own inner chaos to take us to places we don't desire.

Use this Moon to ask yourself bigger questions about your work, your content, your offers, and your marketing.

What would make this easier for people to understand?

What can I compare this to that would help people to use it/work with it/get better results/to understand it more?

What would a CEO do?

Where can adjust/tweak/re-focus to get better results?

What is my bigger vision/plan?

If you're low energy/in a self care mood: If we experience frustration or exhaustion under this influence this is a good moon to sit back and simply ponder the broader perspective of our work. We don't necessarily need to take action right now but it might brighten our spirits to let ourselves daydream.

Social Media:

- Spend time sharing your philosophy with your community, show them why you do what you do, and why it's important. How is your work/method/principles different from others?
- Connect with people whom you admire, showcase people in your community doing great work.
- Talk about people/books/resources that have inspired you. Share those resources with your community.
- Talk about the ripple effect of doing the work (you help with), how it makes families, communities better when we all grow.

Right now you might feel an intensity that is difficult to ignore, which is why pouring this energy into creative and action-oriented pursuits is the best use of it. There is a driving hunger that comes with the meeting of these two planets and you may feel an anxious need to direct the ferocity so that it doesn't devour you.

Be mindful of where this energy goes though because it may be tempting to unleash such power on people you have a conflict with. Your tongue could be sharper than even you expect so be sure to choose your words carefully. It won't take much to get things moving in your projects with this influence driving force behind your efforts, so use it to its fullest potential to see your desires met.

Last Quarter in Pisces begins at 11:52 am PST

- Channelled/enhanced artistry, imagination, writing and energy work
- Listen to creative impulses that naturally come up and let yourself follow the flow so you can complete some aspect of your work with ease
- Excellent time for retreats, meditations, seclusion in remote areas, communion with nature and spiritual practices
- Take inventory of your energy to determine whether your work goals are both realistic and supportive of your self-care
- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Use this moon to dive into content creation, channelled artistry and any healing work that might be calling you at this time. This Last Quarter is the perfect time to wrap up tasks and if you can make the more tedious ones enjoyable with music, playful breaks or self care, it may help to meet your objectives this week.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: Take an emotional inventory of how much energy you have and whether you've been honouring your self-care lately. If you notice you still have a ways to go to meet your project goals yet your cup feels empty, this is a time to pivot your strategy. Getting things done is important but if you have no work-life balance, it will be difficult to keep going long term. Listen to your body, your emotions and your spirit to know what it is you need to restore your resources.

Social Media & Clients:

- Create safe spaces to explore, express and expunge our deepest trauma so that we can detach ourselves from all that prevents our growth.
- Encourage your clients to tap into their own intuitive and creative processes to unlock parts of themselves they don't usually feel.
- These moons are times of emotional vulnerability and the messages we put out to make an imprint on those who integrate it into themselves.
- Our client work can greatly benefit from kindness and understanding instead of tough love approaches.

Pluto Retrograde in Aquarius (May 2, 2024 - September 1, 2024)

P R

02°06' - 00°00'

Pluto will be in Aquarius from:

March 23, 2023 - June 11, 2023,

January 20, 2024 - September 1, 2024,

November 19, 2024 - March 8, 2043.

The last time that Pluto retrograded at 0 degrees Aquarius, outside of two short stints this year and last year, was May 1, 1777 - August 20, 1778, which saw France fighting back against the British Empire, the formation of treaties between France and the US, and France becoming a supplier to the US of military supplies. This marked an important era in the birth of the United States and also saw some of the bloodiest battles in the American Revolutionary War.

Something is being birthed right now and as a collective, we're going through labor pains. In terms of governmental overreach, we may see some leniency at this time as Pluto is retrograde alongside Saturn, this lack of restriction will likely carry us until mid-November before things gear up again.

For the first couple of months of this retrograde, we will also see Jupiter trining Pluto at the beginning, and towards the end, we'll see Jupiter Squaring Saturn which will amplify the shifts we're seeing, this may trigger some amplification of spending without boundaries, especially on more survival-based aspects of our lives, the need to buck the system and focus on securing our own stability. This may also show up as an increase in legal action against the governments regarding previous lockdown measures, civil rights, and restrictions, as well as its use (and control) over AI technologies, data mining, privacy issues, the use of technology both by government and big business as well as surveillance, and war.

During this time we may feel a temporary relief from our fears as we get a little bit of a break, at least psychologically. But while this may seem like a respite, it actually is an opportunity for deeper introspection on where we're going as a collective and what is within your control moving forward. What is important to you in terms of maintaining your wealth and longer-term security? What are your digital assets? How are you using them, protecting them, securing them?

Waning Crescent in Aries begins at 1:41 pm PST

- Promote short sales with calls to action that give a sense of urgency
- Live video can help you get your face out there, show what you got and believe in your own products
- Start any free “challenges” or special events, this is launch energy!
- Push through procrastination and shake off the Pisces Moon ‘sleepy’ feeling, it's time for action
- Waning Crescent: Low key, reflective and inward energy

If you're high energy/in a work mood: If you have been feeling awash (pun intended) with emotions, or struggling with channelling your feelings and intuitions into something tangible and physical, you will find relief in this moon. Waning Crescent is all about the self. When the Moon enters Waning Crescent in Aries, we will be feeling more active, engaged, and ready to do something about all that we've realized and come to understand.

It is a time to stop thinking so much, and to just jump in with both feet. In this case it will be happening more-so in your internal life. Where are you holding yourself back? Where are you fed up? Where are you tired of doing the same things, and not having the results or experiences you want and need? Where are you tolerating poor treatment, or lackluster interest (either from yourself to yourself, or from others)?

This window is beaconing to us to wake up, to listen, to allow ourselves to become inspired and to make changes without needing to have the whole picture just yet. It is enough to know what you are done with, we don't always need to know what we are moving towards right away, just that we are moving away from the old (from what has ended in Pisces). And that we are ready to become anew again.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: This window is also calling us to wake up, listen, and allow ourselves to become inspired so that we can start making changes without needing to have the whole picture just yet. We don't always need to know what we are moving towards right away, just that we are moving in the direction of our honesty and happiness. Have fun imagining what your life might look like if you approached it through this authentic lens!

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this to generate excitement, make an announcement, have a flash sale, open a cart, kick off an event, close a cart,
- Get people to sign up for an event, take action or rally behind a cause that's important to you.
- Talk about anything that you and your audience find irritating, frustrating or plain piss you off about your industry.
- Encourage building up your people as they face a breakthrough.
- Create a clear, concise Call to Action to make it easy for your people to say yes to your offer.
- Think short bursts, and only on what's most important to MOVE you and them FORWARD.

MERCURY CONJUNCT CHIRON

☿ ♄ K

Words can have a lasting effect on our self-esteem right now, but just as much as they might hurt they can also heal. With the planet of communication lining up with the asteroid of wounding, we could be extra sensitive to what and how others say things.

Similarly, we might express ourselves in ways that touch others deeper than we intend, which is why it's a good idea to not take things too personally during this transit. One of the best uses of this aspect is to recognize the capacity for words to heal those around us and infuse this energy into our content.

Talk about the vulnerable underbelly in your industry and audience that no one else is brave enough to speak on. Lead them into a safe space and give others the opportunity to open up, you'll be amazed at the healing that takes place for you personally when you're willing to open up first.

SUN SEXTILE SATURN

Welcome to the GSD (Get Shyt Done) transit. We have the energy, mental focus, and clarity to move mountains today, with a strategic advantage and mature assessment. We will feel more disciplined and exacting than usual during this period and we will also be able to gauge our time, capabilities, and resources more efficiently.

Whatever you make plans for today is more likely to be accomplished as you won't have your head in the clouds. This is an excellent work day where you'll be able to accomplish a great deal of the most important elements. This is not a period focused on tedious details, busyness, or personal dramas. Choose your work wisely today, if it requires a heavier mental load or more efficient focus this is the best day to choose to complete it.

Ongoing Transits

MERCURY IN ARIES (DIRECT - POST RX SHADOW)

April 25, 2024, 5:54 am – May 13, 2024, 2:02 am

With Mercury still operating a bit 'wonky' as it retraces its steps back over the degrees it retrograded, this is the period where the messages, lessons, insights, ahas and challenges that arose during that period are coming to be mended and attended.

Mercury is now speeding up on it's way to re-catch up with the Sun for one of 3 superior conjunctions it will have this year. We may be feeling mentally more alert (especially if you don't have Mercury Rx in your natal chart), but it's important to make sure that we don't forget about all the themes, messages, and realizations we had during the retrograde, as this is the period to make sure we move forward with a clean slate.

This transit opens us up to new concepts, big thinking, communicating more clearly what we feel, need, and want, and to take clear action with boldness and courage. It shows you the power of connecting a clear mind with clear, intentional action, that when they are in alignment you can move mountains. Allow your imagination to flow during this transit, and follow it with quick decisive action. This is a potent period, and though it won't last, the results of what you create during this period will have tremendous staying power.

Sun in Taurus (April 19, 2024 7:00 am – May 20, 2024 5:59 am)

Taurus Focus: Slow building, micro rewards, routines, habits, food, luxury, gifts, templates, bonuses, sales, high-end products/services, chocolate, sugar, done-for-you, business, income, skills, creature comforts, easy, step-by-step, dopamine, immediate gratification, laziness, working from home, homebody.

The Sun rules our physical vitality and natural energy flow, and in this case, it highlights a specific area of our lives and businesses where we (and our community) will feel naturally drawn. So it only makes sense to use it for goal setting and theming our marketing out in one-month cycles.

The Sun first moves into the sign and then within a few days, we have the Moon join the Sun aligning our emotions with our physical vitality beginning the one-month lunar cycle.

Where the Moon sets the stage for task planning, and emotional energy (both mental and how we're feeling) on a daily level, the Sun sets the stage for the one-month container that we're working within. The Sun is the Macro while the Moon rules the Micro (the daily tasks that will help you get there).

In this case with the Sun moving into Taurus, we can expect that our energy will slow significantly from what we experienced with the Sun in Aries. This is a time to begin going at your own pace and to take things one step at a time.

We won't feel super motivated for new adventures, or big changes, making this a non-ideal time to implement new rules, routines, diets, or any other big changes, but that doesn't mean it can't be used well.

Under Taurus energy, we're stubborn and set in our ways, so this can actually be a great time to stick with what you already have in motion. If you do have to do new things or have a big project on the horizon the best way to address it is to break it into much smaller chunks and build in micro rewards throughout so that you stay on track. It may not be flashy or new, but it will stabilize you and keep you steady as you build out the rest of your business goals through this year.

This is also the best time to offer any programs, services, or offers that involve done-for-you services, luxury products/services, templates, savings, bonuses, or limited supply.

When the Sun moves through Taurus our focus is on living more fully in the lives we have, about taking what we currently have in our lives and growing it, making it better, and increasing our comforts and security. It is about moving from surviving to thriving, about building a strong, long-term foundation where we can not only see things grow but also enjoy ourselves and really live a good quality of life.

Here our focus is on physical things, finances, structures, systems, and strategy. How are we going about what we're setting out to do? Is it grounded? Is it sustainable? Does it bring us joy?

This is a period of work, but it comes with the reminder that you're writing this story, you're setting the stage and you can create the rhythm by which you work and how you do things. That's a big part of the fun for Taurus, so let yourself get creative with the pieces that you can during this period, play with them, move things around, try things in a new way and see what feels right. Much here will be decided by the gut test - how does this feel for me? Let yourself experience, and then make up your mind.

Uranus Retrograde (January 27 - September 1, 2024)

19°05 - 27°15 TAURUS.

Uranus will remain direct in Taurus from now until September 1, 2024. When Uranus moves from retrograde to direct, we are being gifted the opportunity to act on those big, bold ideas and innovations that we've been marinating in. This is a time to regain our bearings. Uranus has been retrograde since August 28, 2023, and has been not so politely nudging us to pay attention to our finances, how we go about earning, spending, and saving our moolah so that we can create a more stable financial future for ourselves, especially during a time on the planet where there is a great deal of change. It is asking us to not get distracted by the surface changes, to the algorithms on social media, or the next new platform feature, but rather how we create consistency, security, comfort, and long-term-ness within financial and governmental structures no longer offer us the sense of safety that they once did.

Uranus brings with it innovation, a rebelliousness that isn't interested in doing things 'the old way'. It doesn't like externally or socially imposed structures, it is here to help you form your own, oddly enough in the comfort-seeking nature of Taurus. Taurus loves its food, its home, its friends, and keeping things kosher, and when it's met with change-agent Uranus, this area of our life is bound to see the most dramatic upgrades (which may feel like mini earthquakes) What areas of your business have shifted over the past 6 months to a year? Have you had financial sources dry up, or change? Have you been compelled to create a new income source for yourself? How can you create consistency during a time when there is so much inconsistency in our lives and society?

Uranus will remain in Taurus, with a brief sojourn into Gemini (in 2025) until April 2026. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus was post W/W2 when new systems were created to ensure the welfare and balance for all, things like social welfare and standard work weeks. Necessary and important to the financial stability of the family, community, and country's welfare.

As Uranus embarks upon the remainder of its 7-year journey through Taurus what we can be sure of is that by 2026 the way you have looked at, used, and generated money, financial security, government, law, and growth will not look the same.

Jupiter Direct in Taurus (December 31, 2023)

This transit marks an approximately one-year period where Jupiter will move through Taurus, providing us with opportunities to grow our wealth and skills, but it can also lead us to overspend, and we are likely also to see a magnification of the current inflation. Under the influence of Jupiter, everything can seem possible, and while this may endow us with more faith this year, it also needs to be backed up with good spending habits, resourcefulness, and focusing on what we currently have and can leverage, rather than trying to add more onto our plates.

Taurus is an excellent business sign, but it is through its stinginess, ingrained habits, and resistance to change that it is able to maintain what it has. This is not the year to spend extravagantly, especially on luxury items although we will feel really inclined to do so. Taurus loves beautiful things, and under Jupiter, we will feel more than ever that not only do we deserve these things but we should have them right away, after all Taurus needs those dopamine hits, and retail therapy is one of the fastest ways to get those fixes. But we would be doing ourselves a disservice, we can in fact build stability this year so long as we can follow up our purchases with a plan and have a clear light of sight to the ROI it will generate for us whether that is more time, more money, more security or more support. We just need to make sure that we are being honest about where we're at currently and focus on leveraging what we already have first, if you can shop from your own kitchen first, then you have more left in your pocket. This doesn't mean cutting out the things you enjoy, but it does mean looking to potential other ways to meet those needs, or the underlying need beneath the wants and cravings so that you can nourish the root before throwing money at it that may ultimately not bring you what you want.

This can absolutely be a year to build wealth and fortitude for yourself and your business, but it is NOT through taking big risks, but instead first building from what you already have, and investing in yourself first, with things that will bring you a quicker ROI, under Taurus we need to meet the basic needs first before we can think about scaling. If you have a viable business already then improving the infrastructure can be beneficial, as can running things a bit leaner so that you have more cash flow to bank, or invest in other areas.

Things are going to cost more this year, and we may feel we have enough to cover it, but what about next year, or the year after that? Find ways to find joy, satisfaction, and pleasure now, while also thinking about the stability of your future.

Jupiter in Taurus will highlight the following areas, so if you have business ventures in these areas this is a good year to focus on expanding them. This can also help you to focus on WHERE and WHAT to spend your money on for the future.

Chiron Direct in Aries (December 26, 2023)

December 27, 2023 - July 26, 2024

15°27' - 23°32'

Chiron has been in Aries since 2019 and will continue to move through the remainder of Aries energy between now and 2027 with a few retrogrades in between to help us be reminded that healing our wounds comes in layers. We are never really 'over something' but we can find new facets of ourselves and our own medicine with each revisit.

Chiron reminds us of our tenacity, our ability to heal ourselves, and to share that medicine with others, to transform otherwise difficult experiences through alchemy. When Chiron is in Aries it is a time of action, to walk our talk and to enact real change in regards to our wounds. It is a time when we may impulsively react due to our wounds, so we will need to take a pause before jumping in fully but it can also be a very powerful period to bring the wounds to the light. If there is something that you have experienced that you don't want someone else to go through, this is a time to bring that cause to light.

With Aries we're not messing around, we need to mobilize our healing, we need to create movements around it. It's a time to allow our anger and fury to become channeled into positive change in our world. To use our words and actions in an empowering way, to become the light. It is a period where we will no longer be silenced, and where we will allow our wounds to help us to become who we are meant to be.

Neptune in Pisces (December 6, 2023 - July 2, 2024)

27°41' - 24°53'

Each year, Neptune retrogrades for approximately 5 months.

Neptune rules both sleeping and waking dreams, imagination, fantasies, optimism, and idealism (in life and romance). Review your opinions, values, and belief systems, and listen to your gut. Work with the spiritual and mystical while keeping yourself grounded. Dreams, yoga, meditation, astrology, tarot, and deep inquiry can be very healing at this time. Contemplate your spirituality and belief systems. Focus on your creativity and allow what wants to come through to do so, unhindered. Let go of anything that feels heavy. Watch out for - unrealistic or fluffy thinking, seeing people, and circumstances as you want to see them rather than as they are. Overindulgence in numbing agents. Emotions may run high or over the top. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, check the current transits in your chart and see what house Neptune is moving through for you.

Neptune in Pisces has been a central player in the virus of 2020, and on pandemics and viruses in general, every time it goes retrograde we are able to think clearer and we also notice the concerns of the media, government, and public fears around it (and variations) are reduced until it goes direct again.

Saturn Direct in Pisces (November 4, 2023)

November 4, 2023 - June 29, 2024

00°30' - 07°12'

This transit will last until June 29, 2024, when Saturn goes retrograde again. Saturn will remain in Pisces until February 13, 2026.

We may find our faith tested during this time, while Saturn takes its time moving through Pisces where it will remain for the next 2.5 years, we may be confronted with the consequences and results of our actions (or lack thereof), our successes and our failures will both become apparent during this time. This is a period of psychological testing, where we may be faced with unavoidable realities, the experiences themselves are not nearly as important as our willingness to confront what makes us uncomfortable, and be willing to digest the truth. This is a forging of our new psychology and will ensure fortitude as Saturn moves to catch up with Neptune in February 2026 at 0 degrees Aries, fully dismembering the illusions we've been living under for the past several years.

Saturn often gets a bad wrap, with many afraid of its transits, especially to our natal charts, but Saturn is the forger, what is formed under Saturn withstands and endures. It rules iron, and when we think of the empires that were ruled under the Iron age, many of their buildings stand even today. As Saturn makes its transit through Pisces between now and 2026, this is a time to assess, re-evaluate, commit, and master. We are being asked to stick through things, and not give up easily, especially if things get difficult because what we are building now matters - maybe more than it ever has before.

Under Pisces often what we are facing are our worst fears, our belief systems, and our inner psychological mechanisms, this isn't to say that what we're facing isn't real, in some cases it may not be, but the changes it makes are crucial and long-standing in not only your business, but how you run your business, how you see yourself, and how you face challenges moving forward.

In Pisces, we need to notice where we have walls and whether those walls are there to protect us or whether they are blocking us from receiving the fruits of our labors. Saturn is karma and whatever is given under Saturn cannot be lost. This is the time to ask yourself where you will draw the line in the sand. What is non-negotiable in your life, in your business, in your finances, and in your relationships?

Saturn also rules time, and in Pisces which is the dream world, this acts in two ways, first that we can bring our dreams into tangible reality through commitment, effort, and good old-fashioned hard work, the second is that this is actually a period of bending time, where what maybe took eons before may seem like it occurs in no time at all, we will also be faced with the deepest psychological pressures we've faced in 27-30 years (the last time Saturn moved through Pisces). We must also make sure that we are making the best use of our time, and not letting our fears overtake our ability to act towards our dreams, even if it seems like those dreams are a distant reality, or we struggle to see how they are possible.

Without dreams (Pisces) and tangible action (Saturn), along with a strategic plan we cannot create matter. And the forging of matter, moving energy from the 5D to the earth plane takes longer than we expect. And while it may not occur at the rate you'd like, it doesn't mean nothing is happening, it just means you can't visibly see it yet with your Earth-based eyeballs :)

Commitment, commitment, commitment is the meaning of this transit. One foot in front of the other, the more your mind screams at you, berates you, or activates your fears tells you that you are in fact on the right track. You are stirring something deep within you that is ready for the spotlight of examination.

Don't be afraid of what's in the closet, we all have boogie men hiding in there, but 99.9% of the time, they're simply shadows and products of an active imagination. Now's the time to whip open the door and shine your flashlight in there, you might just be surprised that it holds the key to creating your biggest vision ever.

From a business perspective, Saturn shows us what needs to be built for the world, and what our community and clients will be dedicating time, energy, and finances to (even if reluctantly, or to all-out avoid). In this case, the focus will be on psychology, spirituality, therapy, metaphysical services, skills, and tools, as well as numbing agents. If you have a spiritual or therapy-based business this is the time between now and the next 2.5-3 years to build the foundations of your business whether it's from scratch or to solidify what you have already grown. This can feel like a lot of hard work, but remember what you're building now isn't for now, it's for the next 30 years, and so when we think of our efforts through the lens of the long-term future we can understand and even become comfortable with the wait.

Governmentally we may see more restriction on free speech or even 'free thought', with politicians in many countries trying to quell platforms where free speech and dialogue is allowed, as well as adding additional restrictions on currently operating platforms to censor individuals who don't share popular views. We may also see advances in AI technologies (including possible AI Sentience), smart devices, predictive behaviors, and marketing based on these technologies. Amazon already does this when it comes to their algorithms knowing what you are going to buy before you buy it, and stocking it in their warehouse before you even think of ordering. Saturn is about materializing, and Pisces is the immaterial world.

We may also see an increased interest in topics such as psychic intuition, dreamwork, energy work, ufos, hypnosis, energy-based medicine, homeopathy, conspiracies, and psychic phenomena as Saturn makes tangible the things that we cannot fully explain.

Globally with the lockdowns in effect since 2020, we have seen repeatedly that when Saturn is direct, lockdowns and governmental restrictions are enacted and maintained. It is likely we will see an uptick of lockdowns and governmental restrictions while Saturn is direct, with a rescinding of restrictions when Saturn retrogrades again. However the previous Saturn transits and retrogrades were in the sign of Aquarius (the people/the public), and Capricorn (the government, buildings, and world infrastructure), whereas this is the first Saturn Transit and retrograde cycle to take place in Pisces since the events of 2020, so it is likely the restrictions and release of restrictions will look differently, in this case, it may be in policing what can be said online, freedom of speech (and thought), and an uptick in programming and media directed to guide public belief and perspectives, as well as potentially reproductive rights (Pisces rules the 12th house of birth/gestation), as well as potent restrictions around water (Pisces), citing environmental concerns and shortages.

2023-2026 Saturn Return for those born between February 1935 - January 1938
March 1964 - March 1967
May 1993 - April 1996

Saturn returns to each sign once every 29 or 30 years for approximately 2.5-3 years. Saturn was last in Pisces from 2/1935 to 1/1938, 3/1964 to 3/1967, and from 5/1993 to 4/1996. Saturn will again be in Pisces from March 8, 2023, through February 13, 2026.

Saturn Returns are periods of great change, challenges, and adversity where we will feel the pressure to become more of our own person.

Pluto Direct in Capricorn (October 10 - December 31, 2023)

27°53' - 29°59'

Pluto will now remain in Capricorn until January 21, 2024, over the next several months as we close out 2023, and even after Pluto moves into Aquarius in January 2024, we will likely see significant changes and transformations in all the areas that Capricorn rules such as governments, rules, foundations, regulations, currencies, economies, resources, money and legacies. This will not be a simple rebuilding or redesigning, the change will come through power struggles, the use of fear for control, uncovering the deep subconscious, and a willingness to surrender or risk great loss for a sense of purpose and meaning.

Pluto is here to help us transform ourselves, find our purpose, and remind us that freedom should never be taken for granted. We may find great conspiracies, abuses of power, and a need to stand up for rights (as rules and laws can be used as coercive measures by those wishing to gain more power and control). This is a time when we are reminded of what's important to us, and that we cannot remain complacent about the things that are of real value. If it feels like your business, your life, and your place in the world is hitting a great transition point, it is, now is the time to stand strong for what's important to you and to deeply inquire about what you are willing to give up, sacrifice or surrender to live a life of real meaning and significance.

This window also marks the continuation of the Pluto return for the US triggering changes in government, finance, currency, health care, natural resources, industry, and the core foundations of the country.

I would expect to see a change in currency, government formation, and major foundational changes to the country itself that will impact how the US operates, and how other countries interact with the US.

There are two things that may occur during this period, one is that the US shifts to no longer becoming a world superpower and is surpassed by another country, or it completely re-structures and enters a second re-birth.

North Node in Aries (July 12 - December 31, 2023)

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Taurus and the South Node transited Scorpio.

This showed a significant period of growth for home-based and online businesses, as well as home education, and bringing luxurious experiences into our homes from home decor, home improvements, comfort foods, products, and beauty services. We also witnessed a shift in the markets and currencies with food (Taurus), Gas, and Oil (Scorpio) increasing in cost and access.

This was an 18-month cycle of trying to stabilize and hold on to what we have, without making significant changes, as Taurus & Scorpio are fixed signs that don't appreciate change. The South Node movement through Scorpio which naturally rules the 8th house may have represented financial losses, scams, and increased debts, with even big businesses experiencing shareholder losses, including Target, Walmart, and Disney.

The movement of the North Node into Aries, and the South Node into Libra will usher in new significant changes. With the movement from fixed signs (Taurus-Scorpio) into Cardinal Signs (Aries-Libra), we will find ourselves being forced either through desire or circumstance to take big action and initiate new things, grabbing life by the steering wheel.

The next 18 months will be a period of innovation, as Cardinal Cycles are here to bring about the new change, and with it occurring in the signs of Aries-Libra, we will find that it may be due to a need to ensure our own survival whether that is in business, or for basic needs.

This is a time for working for yourself, trusting in your own ability, and refining your skills, and marks a movement away from people pleasing, partnerships, and collaborations. You may find that you have to defend your work or fend off theft or copyright issues during this transit and that the support to protect yourself legally or receive justice is lacking (South Node Libra). We will have an unsettled feeling (met with reality) that fairness and justice seem to be missing during this period, and this can in some ways reflect a period of 'acts of war', whether that is directly through competitors, having your reputation or assets under attack, or experiencing underhandedness.

This will also be reflected in our world with it appearing that people, government, institutions, etc are 'getting away with murder'. Justice will prevail, but it will be delayed and we may not see the resolution to some of these matters until much, much later. It is better to not focus on seeking salvation through legal routes, or being saved by others during this time and instead take measures to protect yourself, and your work and meet your own needs as necessary.

The last times this cycle took place on the Aries-Libra axis were 1911 - 1913, 1930-1932, 1949 - 1950, 1967 - 1969, 1986 - 1987, and 2004 - 2006.

To draw from the historical record, specifically the transit from 1930 - 1932 occurred off the back of the 1929 Stock Market Crash (North Node Taurus - South Node Scorpio) which echoed the 2021- 2023 transit of the North Node's movement through Taurus before entering Aries, with Taurus representing the financial system and the Earth (Soil/Agriculture). During this time we also saw severe droughts (Taurus) in the US, creating the Dust Bowl with many farmers and families needing to leave their homes (Taurus) out of necessity. As the North Node moves out of one sign and into another, we are leaving behind something from the previous sign, during the 1930-1932 transit, we left behind agricultural lands, homes, and consistent 'easy' money, and we shifted into a period of shortages, survival, and resourcefulness out of necessity.

We have already seen the mirror of this in 2022 with the agricultural challenges, fertilizer shortages/inflation, and animal feed shortages/inflation affecting the agricultural sector at the time of writing this forecast (August 2022).

It is very possible that into 2023 - 2025 we will see droughts, issues with fires, heatwaves, and continued food supply shortages/inflation/sanctions and challenges with the agricultural sector, as well as financial structural instability, and potentially a stock market low, or crash (possibly October 2022 - at the time of writing), and onward into 2023 - 2025 as the North Node in Aries dries out and heats everything up.

Historically speaking the Nodes in Aries/Libra also marked periods of socialism/marxism, rise to power, and initiation of world wars (under Cardinal & Mutable signs), which tended to expand and amplify under the following nodal shifts - North Node in Pisces (World War 1, next transit Coming 2025 - 2026), North Node Capricorn (Desert Storm, Opposite to North Node Cancer), North Node Cancer (911 & Afghanistan -opposite to North Node Capricorn) North Node Libra (reverse to now - Beginning of World War 2), North Node Virgo (World War 2 - opposite North Node Pisces coming 2025-2026).

Now no single astrological transit can predict future events, however, it can indicate ongoing themes and challenges, and historical events that are echoes of periods of the past to give us an indication of what we may be navigating. There are of course other planets involved in significant world events, but if we look at the current transits at work, some are the exact opposite (mirrors) of previous events. How they may express themselves during this cycle is yet to be seen.

This can be a big period for your business if keep your head in your own lane and focus on what you want to build, taking action and starting things that excite you while also meeting your basic needs.

Beginning of: The End of people pleasing, finding a new identity, Survival, and taking care of oneself, Impulsivity, Taking big risks, Learning self-sufficiency, Decisiveness, Trusting yourself, Independence, Pioneering, Entrepreneurialism, Saying 'no'

In terms of business, there are certain industries that will be trending with this transit -

Fitness & exercise industry, adventure sports, strength training, diamonds, engineering & inventions, metal working, wood carving, garnets, hairstyling, manufacturing, land, metals and metalworking, weapons, military gear, survival programs, skills & courses, optometry, physical therapy, hunting, preserving, politics, cattle & sheep, home improvements to heating systems, roofing, walls, etc, automobile services, sleep products, medical care, knives, engineering tools, welding, farm animal care, services, supplies, and housing.

What to watch during this period collectively:

- Heat, heat exhaustion, Burns, fires, explosions, sharp tools, and instruments causing injury, accidents, Adrenaline (fear)/Adrenal Issues, we need to be extra careful to keep this in check and support our adrenal system - watch the caffeine and mental stress.

- Auto-immune issues, Brain diseases, and afflictions, cerebral congestion and hemorrhages, cerebrospinal nervous system, comas, convulsions, dizziness, inflammatory diseases, encephalitis, epilepsy, eye conditions and disorders, headaches, diseases of the head, smallpox, surgeries, toothaches, vertigo, violent diseases

South Node in Libra (July 12 - December 31, 2023)

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Scorpio.

This showed a moving away from deeper transformation, problem-solving, addressing root issues, and an inclination to self-soothe through food, sex, caffeine, sugar, luxury items, retail therapy, and shiny objects. It also showed potentially an increase in debt, and a deep desire to get out of debt or avoid loans.

We saw an interest in the stock market, currency exchange, investments, food security, gardening, real estate, land, agriculture, as well as more luxury items/retail therapy.

The South Node's transit through Scorpio saw a significant shift in our relationships to debt, credit cards, insurance, gas and travel costs, interest rates, mortgages, savings, retirement funds, and other investment assets. Governmental we also saw run-away spending, mass printing of fiat currency, lack of disclosure on funding, increased taxes and debt collection, and more governmental enforcement around debts and taxes. Longer wait times and delays in health care, layoffs, increased job loss, unemployment, and bankruptcy as well as increased costs in insurance, health coverage, and the insurance industry taking significant losses.

Now that the South Node is moving into Libra, we will see more divorces, breakups, ending of business partnerships, and collaborations. We will also see the stress on our justice departments, courthouses, and legal infrastructure, with significant delays and wait times, which will also be met with dissatisfaction with justice, and mistrust of the legal system. The injustices of the transit of the South Node in Scorpio will only create more friction between the government, the legal system, and the people as the South Node moves into Libra and witness the widening gap between those with power and money and those without. As more people experience higher taxation, increased costs of living and lower and inconsistent wages, while witnessing that big business isn't paying their fair share we will likely see increased protests and pushback.

With the North Node in Aries, it can feel like a war on the little guy, with everyone out for themselves.

This can also be a period of increased legal issues, so make sure that you're doing business kosher or you might find yourself in hot water this year.

Lifestyle brands that don't fit into the current needs of their market may find sales drop this year, if you don't have anything of substance behind your business other than fancy pictures or Pina Coladas you may want to re-think your market and what will meet their needs now. Brands that meet more imminent needs, survival, inspiration, action-oriented products, services, and skills development will fair much better during this period.

How can you become the swiss army knife of your industry?

The community isn't seeking balance, posh, and beauty right now, they're trying to keep their head above water, and aren't in a space to scale as much as to hold steady. They will be looking to take big action, innovate, and move quickly. This is not a period of focusing on long-term change or sustainability, it's a period of taking big risks and focusing on today and tomorrow. How does your brand fit in with that?

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

And in this case, it is balance, justice, fairness, and high-quality products and services that are taking the back burner.

Things to monitor during this transit:

- The Legal System - Checks & Balances
- The Law being used to benefit the rich/elite and not the common person/public
- Increased divorce rates
- Reduced Marriages
- Business Partnership Dissolution
- Quantity over Quality (cheaper materials, cheap labor, cutting corners)
- Short Cuts which can lead to legal issues
- Lawsuits
- Theft & Copyright issues

It can be helpful to simply take action on what you are inspired by, and where you feel nudged, this isn't so much a period to perfect or polish your offers, services, and products (that will come later), as that will slow you down. Don't spend too much time overthinking things, utilize the energy you have as you have it, if things don't work out, this is not the time to dwell on the failures but instead to assess what didn't work, and keep moving forward.

This period traditionally is a period of great innovation, and creativity and a great many things are begun under this cycle, ones that you may not understand the significance of until much later.

Take action, stay inspired, and focus on what is within your control.

End of/Challenges to:

- Life of Luxury
- Easy-going existence
- Pursuit of mental activities
- Literature & books
- Tact & Diplomacy
- Ability to see both sides
- Ease in handling money
- Relying on others
- Justice system
- Indecisiveness
- cooperations/partnerships
- Poor boundaries

What will not be as important, end, or fall from 'grace':

Actors & actresses, Artists, Beauty parlors, cosmetics, Interior decoration, Relationships, marriages (increase in divorces), Social gatherings and functions, weddings, products/services considered luxury items

Potential Health issues: Diabetes, kidney issues, fallopian tubes, endocrine system and glands, ovaries and ovarian trouble, renal disorders, ailments of the spine and lumbar region, vasomotor system, urinary issues, bright's Disease, vein system.

Products/Services/Industries & Material Goods that will see a decrease/losses:

Acting, Dressmakers, Florists, Luxury Furniture, Golf, Jewelry/Jewels, Unions, Strawberries, Tailors/Tailoring

Countries/Cities that will experience challenges/endings/transformation:

Antwerp Belgium, Argentina, Austria, Chicago, Denmark, Charleston West Virginia, Burma, China, Frankfurt-am-main Germany, Fribourg Switzerland, India (areas near China), Iraq, Israel, Japan, Johannesburg South Africa, England, Lisbon Portugal, Los Angeles California, Miami Florida, Siberia, South Pacific Islands, Tibet, United States (east of Mississippi River), Vienna Austria
