Daily Espada: Brazilian Mythos Indie Action game

Content:

HI PERSON

I'm Pedro and I've just released my new PC game called "Daily Espada". It's a super hard, boss battle oriented 2D action game. The enemies are inspired by Brazilian Folklore and the gameplay is inspired by SNES classics like Demon's Crest and modern games like Monster Hunter.

You play as a family man that decides to provide for his daughter and wife by battling monsters in a twisted reality show. The gameplay consists of exploring a building where battles net you prizes and keys for further exploration, while receiving emails from your family.

The gameplay can be summarized by: explore, fight battles, die and try again, get keys, fight bosses, check your emails, explore some more.

Price: 4.99$

Platforms: PC / Mac / Linux
